JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN
The Center's all-star softball team coasted to another victory on June 25th to beat the Henderson Boy's Club, 22-5. This was Henderson's second defeat against the undefeated Rangers. Kelly Mac Namara was our winning pitcher, who helped win his game by hitting a home run. Other home runs were hit by Brian Spector and James Deakin.

Our team needs only to win two of our last three games to clinch a tie for first. Our last three games will be tough as some of our better players will leave on vacation or will be working.

Shalom Day Camp is running smoothly. Many groups have been camping and going on field trips. Swimming at St. Anne's pool is being enjoyed by all the campers.

Pete Margolis, center director, has been home with a touch of the flu. We hope he'll be back by the time you read this.

The center hosts summer basketball games every Tuesday night from 5 p.m. If you would really like to see some exciting basketball, that is where it happens. These are some of the top-ranked teams in the State.
