Get well wishes to Connie Myers, whom I hope will be home recuperating by the time you read this. Connie sure is a funny gal, her stories are true ones and if anyone is missing a chance at entertaining the public, I think Connie is. She sure is a great gal, and among one of my favorites.

Wedding bells will be ringing for Arnie Rosencrantz (who vowed he would remain a bachelor) when he and Lynn Leshgold, a resident of Portland, Oregon, say "I Do" early in August. Arnie's parents, Betty and George who purchased a Palm Springs home, have known the parents of Lynn for many years, and I am sure this makes everyone very happy.

Le Roy Sirota has moved his family up from California now that he is established in the Mecca Club, Fremont Street. Three more have been added to the census roll. Hope you, Gale, and the children will again enjoy living in Las Vegas. Gale and Le Roy met when they were attending high school here.

Esther Gilson is home after being hospitalized for sometime.

There's a young boy living in Henderson. He needs to go to the Easter Seal Treatment Center three times a week. His only means of transportation is by taxi. The Voluntary Action Center of Greater Las Vegas is trying to find a volunteer to help him by driving him from Henderson to Las Vegas. Anyone interested should contact the VAC at 382-5260.

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

The Jewish Community Center's All-Star Team won its league and a post-season tournament which was sponsored by the center.

Our All-Star team finished the year with a 7 - 0 record. In the tournament held July 3 at Crestwood Field, Las Vegas Boys' Club defeated the Henderson Boys' Club in a semi-final game. In the final game our All-Stars held a 15 - 0 lead going into the fifth inning. Las Vegas Boys' Club scored one in the sixth, but we came right back to score three more in the bottom of that inning. They picked up three more in the seventh, but it didn't matter, as the final score was 18 - 5.

A barbecue lunch was held between games for all three teams.

Last week in summer basketball, our team was defeated by the Las Vegas All-Stars who have just returned from the Junior Olympics in West Virginia.

Camp Shalom was entertained with a big surprise a couple weeks ago. An Israeli singing trio touring the natvon for Jewish National Fund sang and played Is-

This year the school district will hire an estimated 265 new teachers to handle an increased enrollment of about 1,000 students and to replace teachers leaving for a variety of reasons. They represent the smallest group of new employees for any fall in 15 years, and they are being picked from better than 8,000 applicants.
