

COJO FIGHTS FOR SOVIET JEWRY

GENEVA (WNS) -- The delegates to the world conference of Jewish Organizations (COJO) have agreed to continue the fight for Soviet Jewry despite possible "misunderstanding" and "misinterpretation" by supporters of Soviet - Western detente.

Dr. William Wexler, of Savannah, Ga., COJO chairman, said Jews throughout the world welcome the efforts toward detente. "But if there is to be genuine peace," he added, "it must be accompanied by action to permit the free flow of people and ideas . . . and this means an end to the Soviet cold war emigration policy."

Mrs. Charlotte Jacobson, chairman of the American section of the Jewish Agency, said the Jackson Amendment must be supported "without undermining the President's efforts for detente."

Jacob Stein, chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, said he and Richard Maass, chairman of the National Conference for Soviet Jewry in the U.S., will meet with Dr. Henry Kissinger, President's national security advisor, for a full briefing on the Nixon-Brezhnev talks as it related to Soviet Jewry.

The delegates were also told by Israeli Ambassador Samuel Divon that the 5,000 Jews in Syria have been denied all civil rights and that conditions for Iraq's 4,000 Jews have worsened.
