Dear Mr. Tell:

Thank you for sending me issues of the LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE.

In the future, instead of sending me any more issues, you may feel free to send same to Rabbi Daniel Jeremy Silver, of The Temple University Circle, Cleveland, Ohio 44106.

Thank you again. I think you are a fine editor. Too bad more readers didn't follow your and my lead in warning against the continuation of the present administration.

Sincerely yours,
Harry A. Blachman

Dear Mr. Tell,

I received a phone call from a well known and respected Los Angeles Rabbi, who also happens to be a personal friend.

His Temple in Los Angeles is forced, due to Neighborhood conditions, to relocate and the Rabbi wishes to consider Las Vegas, beginning with the upcoming High Holy Days later this year.

He wishes to know whether there is a way to contact the local Traditional Jewish residents of his planned services, with the potential of a permanent Synagogue at a later date.

Mr. Tell, of all the people I know in this area, I believe you are the most qualified to voice an opinion and advise me as to the possibility of such a plan.

It is my personal belief, that with the constantly growing population, that there is justification and a need for a TRADITIONAL Temple.

Please let me know if you would be kind enough to sponsor an ad in your paper to that respect, or if not, the cost involved for an ad, so the Rabbi could get the response to his planned move.

Yours Truly,
Bert Bachheimer
Las Vegas

Dear Sir,

I am a prisoner at the London Correctional Institution London, Ohio, and am serving a 5 to 30 year sentence.

I have been here for 5 years and have had no one to correspond with. I have friends here who have written to you with their request to print their plea in your paper to help them to find someone to share their hopes and goals in life with. Through your willingness to help them, they have found someone to correspond with, and to share their life with.

I am writing you in hopes that I too can find someone who is sincere and would like to correspond with me and share my life's hopes and goals.

Dear People:

I am a prisoner at the Washington State Reformatory and would like to receive your paper. I have no funds and would appreciate any help you could give me in obtaining a subscription.

Sincerely,
J. W. McCurdy

Dear Mr. Tell,

There is a question I would like to have answered and feel you are the one that can give me a truthful one.

My husband and I are planning another trip to Las Vegas, which will be our fourth. We have usually visited there in April or July. This time we wish to go about September 16 for a week just before Rosh Hashonah. What we would like to know is if the weather is still "summery" like then so that we could sit around the pool and enjoy summer-type activities during the day.

Please be kind enough to tell me your opinion. We plan to stay at the International this time.

Cordially,
Jeanette B. Schamis

P.S. We adore your paper.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: September's climate in Las Vegas is usually most ideal, if the extreme heat of July and August does not linger on. Come and enjoy. J.T.)

When a gas station
runs out of fuel,
it closes down.

what does a power company do?

We certainly cannot just hang up our hard hats and go home... but it's something to think about! Nevada Power presently has the generating resources to provide Southern Nevada the electric energy needed, but its natural gas fuel supply is being severely curtailed, and there are uncertainties concerning substitute fuel oil supplies. It is something to think about! If the nation's energy crisis continues to worsen, by this winter it may affect your supply of electric energy. But we're doing our best to see that it doesn't happen. Meanwhile, we hope you recognize that electricity is a vital resource. Please eliminate waste. It all adds up.
