

URGES JACKSON AMENDMENT ADOPTION

Bill Mauldin

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Dr. Leonid Tarrasuk, a former arms curator of the Hermitage Museum in Leningrad, has urged that Congress enact the Jackson Amendment linking trade concessions to the Soviet Union with free emigration from the USSR "as the only reliable" means to help Jews and all other people in the Soviet Union.

He said the only thing the Soviet authorities understand is "crude reality." Tarrasuk, who emigrated to Israel with his family last month, is in the U.S. under the sponsorship of the National Conference on Soviet Jewry.

In New York, British MP Grenville Janner, honorary secretary of the All-Party Parliamentary Committee for the Release of Soviet Jewry, met with Mayor Lindsay to discuss the plight of Dr. Benjamin Levich, a leading Soviet physicist, who has been denied permission to emigrate to Israel. Both men urged the Soviet Union to release all Jews seeking to emigrate to Israel.

They particularly mentioned Dr. Levich's 25-year-old son, Evgeny, who was forcibly inducted into the army and sent to the Arctic region despite being seriously ill.

RUSSIAN JEWS DISAGREE IN ISRAEL

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The Second National Conference of Russian Jews, which was held in Beersheba, broke up after two days when some 100 of the 400 delegates said they would form a new association of Russian Jews limited to those who arrived after the Six-Day War.

They said the veteran immigrants from Russia, who controlled the conference, did not understand the problem of the newcomers.

Earlier the convention heard Premier Golda Meir urge the new immigrants to help unify the nation. Speaking specifically of recent immigrants from Soviet Georgia, she said "There is no 'we' and 'you'. We are all one nation."

Georgian Jews recently rioted in Ashdod after 40 of them were discharged from temporary jobs at the port. The government later agreed to find other jobs for them.

US OPPOSES SANCTIONS

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- The United States will oppose any sanctions against Israel by the general assembly of the International Civil Aviation Association (ICAO) for the Israeli interception of a Lebanese airplane.

Rabbi Israel Miller, president of the American Zionist Federation, said this was the statement made by Deputy Secretary of State Kenneth Rush to a delegation from the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations. Rabbi Miller said the delegation expressed the concern of the American Jewish community that ICAO might vote sanctions against Israel when it meets in Rome.

Meanwhile in Jerusalem, Foreign Minister Abba Eban said Israel would demand the same treatment as other nations guilty of intercepting airliners if it is threatened with sanctions by the ICAO. He noted that three Arab countries had imprisoned passengers on civilian aircraft that had been taken against them.

He said Israel would also remind ICAO that Algeria and Syria held Israeli air crews and passengers.
