

BERLIN, ROME TERRORISM LINKED

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- A bomb blast which wrecked the West German-Israeli stand at the international Radio and Television Fair in West Berlin is being linked by Israeli sources with the terrorist attempt in Rome to shoot down an El Al airliner with Soviet-made ground-to-air missiles.

The explosion which occurred after the fair had closed for the night did not cause any casualties, but did do about $25,000 worth of damages to the stand of the Isrex Import Co., a Dusseldorf firm in partnership with a Tel Aviv Company which builds television sets.

A letter received by the West German news agency DPA claimed credit for the blast on behalf of the Black September terrorist organization.

Meanwhile speaking over Israeli radio, Defense Minister Moshe Dayan said the possession of the highly-sophisticated Russian-made S-7 type missiles by the terrorists was very serious since it gave them the technical means of striking at civil aviation.

He said even graver is the link between the terrorists and the Soviet Union which supplied the missiles and Syria and Egypt which received them and through which the weapons reached the terrorists.

Italian police are interrogating the five Arabs arrested in the missile incident and are trying to learn how they got the weapons into Italy.

Other terrorists attacks are expected in Europe. France and Holland, both believed to be likely targets, have reinstated special security measures that were relaxed during the summer.

COST OF ABSORBING IMMIGRANTS RISING

LONDON (WNS) --- Leon Dulzin, acting chairman and treasurer of the Jewish Agency of the Jewish Agency Executive here that the agency, with a 1973 budget of $470 million, may find itself $60 million short by the end of this year due to the spiraling cost of immigrant absorption.

Max Fisher, chairman of the Jewish Agency's Board of Governors, said the agency had not reached its potential in fund-raising even though the U.S. yielded $260 million in 1973, the best results ever, in spite of a business recession.

Dulzin said the cost of absorbing each new immigrant is $10,000 but will go up $2,000 next year because of inflation.
