LOS ANGELES: -- Two of Israel's most prominent scientist-educators, Prof. Joshua Jortner and Prof. Abel Schejter, will join with other scientists and scholars, many of them Nobel Prize winners, who will participate in the Tel Aviv University Decennial Assembly to be held in Los Angeles on Sunday, Oct. 14.

NEW YORK: The American Jewish Congress protested the scheduling of the National School Boards Association's 1974 convention during the Jewish holiday of Passover, warning that failure to alter the date would force Jewish school board members "to choose between their religious obligations and their educational responsibilities."

JERUSALEM: The 1973 UJA "Prime Minister's Mission," composed of over 250 American Jewish Community leaders visiting Israel, has pledged the recordbreaking sum of $14.25 million to the 1974 UJA campaign, it was announced by Paul Zuckerman, UJA General Chairman.

NEW YORK CITY: Americans must reexamine the moral implications of our policy of detente with the Soviet Union, if that policy inevitably leads to greater internal repression, Rabbi Irwin M. Blank, newly elected President of the Synagogue Council of America warned.

TEL AVIV: (WNS) -- Although it won 58.28 percent of the vote in the election for delegates to the 12th Histadrut Convention, Premier Golda Meir's Labor Alignment suffered a setback in the election. The Alignment gathered 3.83 percent less votes than in the last elections.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- In a letter to the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) assembly meeting in Rome, Israel has accused Egypt, Syria and Iraq -- and by implication the Soviet Union -- of being associates and accomplices in an unprecedented threat to civil aviation, the aborted Arab terrorist attempt to shoot down an El Al airliner with a Soviet-made ground-to-air missile.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Foreign Minister Abba Eban told delegates to the 7th Rehovot Conference that "Israel will maintain and expand its development role in cooperation with all states who find advantage and utility in cooperation with us."

NEW YORK (WNS) -- An understanding was reached in Israel recently that the United Hias Service will not aid Soviet Jews who wish to leave Israel, particularly after they had been provided with jobs and housing here, because these Jews cannot be considered people in distress and Israel cannot be regarded as a country of distress.

TEL AVIV (WNS) Defense Minister Moshe Dayan has declared that Israel is through with international guarantees in view of its past experiences with them.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- While noting that steps leading to a political detente and relaxation of tension have been welcomed, Rabbi Irwin M. Blank, newly elected president of the Synagogue Council of America, said that "Americans must reexamine the moral implications of our policy of detente with the Soviet Union, if that policy inevitably leads to greater internal repression."

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Because Oct. 10 is the beginning of Succoth, State Supreme Court Judge Anthony DiGiovanna has signed an order changing the voter registration date in New York City from Oct. 9-10 to Oct. 3-4.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Michael Aron, secretary of the Israel Government and the Cabinet, will leave that post to become president and chief executive officer of the Israel Bond Organization.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Col. F. Donald Miller, executive director of the U.S. Olympic Committee, has declared that the Committee was "definitely in opposition to the selection of the Soviet Union or any other country practicing methods contrary to Olympic ideals, as a site for the 1980 games."
