A man from an old and traditional religion with very modern thoughts will be the major guest on KORK TV 3's "COMMUNITY CAMERA," Saturday, Sept. 22 at 6:30 P.M.

Rabbi Phillip Shnairson, the new spiritual leader at Las Vegas' Temple Beth Shalom, will visit with program host John Howe, and discuss the effects of religion on modern life.

Rabbi Shnairson says he is not frightened of long hair and guitars, and he feels young people today are using "primitive rites" to find their way to traditional religion.

This week's program coincides with Rosh Hashana, the Hebrew New Year.
