JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

Temple Members are requested to fill out a new Center registration form, so that the new 1973-1974 Center membership cards may be issued.

Members of the Temple and their children under 25 (still attending school) are automatically members of the Center, providing two requirements are met: a) be Temple members in good standing and b) have current Center registration cards on file at the Center office.

Single young adults between the ages of 18 and 25 who are no longer in school will be required to pay a $25 Center membership fee.

Family membership registration cards have been mailed to all Temple members, and members are urged to fill out both sides of the cards and return them to the Center office as quickly as possible.

Peter Margolis, Center Director, has issued the following statement of Purposes and Objectives for the Ruby Kolod Recreation Center.

Purpose-To provide a comprehensive community center program for the Las Vegas Jewish Community that will assist individuals and families in gaining a positive sense of Jewish identity while creatively using their leisure.

Objectives-1. To provide opportunities that will maximize individual and family growth potential, assist them in their pursuit of happiness, and aid in their attainment of a selffulfilling life.

2. To provide opportunities that will assist individuals and families in gaining a positive Jewish identity and a feeling of pride in being Jewish.

3. To provide opportunities that will give the individual and family an appreciation of the needs interests, problems and issues of the general community.
