FROM DAVID GOLDWATER
(PRES. L.V. COMBINED JEWISH APPEAL)

Traditionally, Rosh Hashonah is a time to recount our past deeds, and to look forward to the future with determination and new hope. As this new year begins, let us apply this tradition to the plight of our brothers throughout the world.

The aid and comfort we brought to over 300,000 Jews in need and distress overseas offer a measure of gratification. These needy Jews are very much in our thoughts as we look forward to the year ahead and pray for the betterment of mankind everywhere.

The people of Israel are caught in the midst of a tenuous situation. At the moment, there is neither war, nor peace. Although the guns are silent, the threat remains. Israel's people must be sustained and strengthened in the severe trials to which they are subjected. Her goal -- and ours -- is not alone her continued existence. It is the fulfillment of the true promise of the Promised Land -- that her people may live in peace and security, in a nation that serves as a beacon light to the world of a moral and just society.

Together as one people each playing his part--each contributing in his own way - together we can bring the day of peace a little closer.

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE TO LOUIS PINCUS

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Some 200 persons attended an official Memorial Tribute of the American Jewish community to the late Louis A. Pincus.

The meeting, sponsored jointly by the World Zionist Organization and the Jewish Agency for Israel, was held in the WZO auditorium.

Max M. Fisher, chairman of the Board of Governors of the special tribute Pincus' work toward the reconstitution of the Jewish Agency "which brought about full representation and participation of free Jewish communities of the world in the Agency's work."

Mrs. Charlotte Jacobson, chairman of the American Section of the World Zionist Organization, praised Pincus as a Zionist who "never shared the illusion that the movement had achieved its goal with the emergence of the State, but was convinced that Zionism has the tremendous task of bringing the Jewish people to Israel and securing Jewish survival wherever Jews live."

Leon A. Dulzin, acting chairman of the Jewish Agency Executive, and the WZO, said Pincus was a man of education dedicated to Israel's poor, to encouraging aliya, to the struggle for Soviet Jewry and to strengthening Zionism in the diaspora. Jack Weiler, chairman of the United Jewish Appeal of Greater New York called Pincus a bridge builder and said his legacy "will be his achievement in helping create a world Jewry
