

OF THE STARS' Happy New Year

ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

DICK MCINNES

A THEATRE TRIP "The Day After the Fair", the current tenant at our beautiful Shubert Theatre is a strange trip. It has the lovely and extremely talented DEBORAH KERR as the star, a splendid supporting cast (W.B. BRYDON, BRENDA FORBES, MICHAEL SHANNON, MARIE TOMMON & VICKERY TURNER,) LOVELY COSTUMES AND A SUPERB SET, with going for it, you'd think it would be a hit. Wrong! I didn't mind that the plot is old hat, I love nostalgia, but the pace is so sluggish that the play just seems to limp along. However, just watching Miss Kerr work is worth the price of admission. She is warm, kind, beautiful and has a sex appeal that actually shines both on stage and off stage. She ran into JACK OAKIE at Jade West afterwards and gave him a big hug, saying that she uses some old Oakie schticks on stage and she always thinks of him. According to her husband, PETER VIERTTEL, plans to take the play into New York, have been cancelled. If she does do a play, it won't be this one. I can only assume that that bit of news might account for the insufferable rudeness of producer ARTHUR CANTOR at the reception afterwards. Obviously you can take the man out of New York but you can't take the New York out of the man.

BOOK TRIPPING....."Spencer Tracy" by LARRY SWINDELL (Signet Film Series, 95¢) is by far the most interesting book out on Tracy. Mr. Swindell knows his subject and knows him well. He enlightens you on the many sides of one of the finest actors ever to hit the screen. Tracy was a complex man, given to moods and changes, but always an interesting man. Book has some wonderful family photos and the legendary Tracy-Hepburn relationship is explored with the utmost taste....Pyramid is putting out the Pyramid Illustrated History of the Movies series, each book dealing with one star.

First ones out are "Bogart" (Alan Barbour); "Gable" (Rene Jordan); "Davis" (Jerry Vermilye) & "Hepburn" (Alvin Marill). They are all beautifully illustrated and written quite well. And Good News, they are only $1.45. Upcoming are "Monroe", "Bergman", "Grant", "O'Toole", "DeHAVILLAND" "Garson" and many more. Sounds like a great way to start an inexpensive but comprehensive film book. TRIPPING AROUND.....AIP walked off with three top awards at the 6th annual Atlanta International Film Festival. "Heavy Traffic" won the Silver Phoenix for the Best Feature of 1973, MARGOT KIDDER won the Gold Medal for Best Actress of 1973 for "Sisters" and composer BERNARD HERRMANN picked up a gold medal for Best Musical Score for his music in "Sisters". Seems rather ironic that MGM is making plans to sell out and AIP is making super strides forward....DEBBIE REYNOLDS will take one night off from her Broadway hit "Irene" to appear in the Thalian's Salute to SAMMY DAVIS JR on October 20. This year's ball looks to be a smash so get your tickets early-----Had a drink with DAVE MADDEN at Frascati's (he had a 7-up and I had an orange juice, how's that for swingers???) and he assured me that the Partridge Family would not try to take All in The Family's audience away. He said that Keith (DAVID CASSIDY) would definitely not have a vasectomy nor would SHIRLEY
