A new Social Jewish Single Adult Group for ages 35 to 60 is being formed at Temple Beth Shalom. For information call temple at 384-5070 or Dorothy Horne at 457-0915.

A Survival Seminar, open to public and free, to educate the public to the dangers of environmental pollution and malnutrition will be held Oct. 25 at the Showboat Hotel.

The Mouse Trap was awarded possession of E. M. Gunderson Sweepstakes Cup after winning top honors in 10th Annual Joyce Raft Race at Willow Beach.

Dr. Jessie B. Carnevale, who joined the UNLV faculty as associate professor of law enforcement, presented a paper on "Legal Rights to a Healthful Environment" before an assemblage of medical, legal and forensic scientists from all over the world at Third World Congress on Medical Law in Ghent, Belgium.

She said discussion among the scientists on her paper continued for three hours after the reading, one of the longest sessions on any single topic.

Dr. Carnevale, who comes to UNLV from the University of Arizona where she taught and earned a law degree, has been named regional director for the 1975 meeting of the group in Zurich, Switzerland.

In view of the accelerating rate of divorce and the alarming practice of young people nowadays to abandon marriage entirely, a new and unique organization, The Jewish Institute for Brides and Grooms, has been formed. For more information, write 406 Crown Street, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11225.

A central information and reference agency for unstructured, innovative or unaffiliated Jewish groups has been established at the Interfaith Center in Columbia, Maryland. Anyone who is involved in such a group or would like to learn more about this new direction in Jewish life is asked to get in touch with the Center of Innovative Judaism, Interfaith Center, Wilde Lake Village Green, Columbia, Maryland 21044.

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

Starting Sunday, Oct. 14 children's fall programs will get underway. These programs will run for 12 weeks. There will be two "Fun Clubs", one for those in Kindergarten through 2nd grade and another for 3rd through 6th grade.

These will be "Special Interest" clubs in Arts and Crafts, Handicraft, Jewish Cooking, Outdoor Cooking, and Sports.

We also will be starting a new club called the "Saturday Sabbath Club" for those in grades 3 through 6. The activities will include Oneg Shabbats, songs, games, and stories. For all the clubs we must have 8 pre-registered or the club will not be formed. For more information contact the Center office at 382-8621.

John Farrell, Center Sports Director, has a long list of fall and winter sports activities in-

ALIYA FROM U. S. DOWN

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Although aliya in general remained strong, emigration from the United States to Israel has declined during the past eight months, according to Leon Dulzin, acting chairman of the Jewish Agency and the World Zionist Executive.

But Dulzin told a special meeting of the American Zionist Federation Executive Committee that he expected 7200 Canadian and American olim to arrive in Israel by year-end. He said that there had been a resurgence of immigration from Eastern Europe independent of that from the Soviet Union. Dulzin said the two major concerns for the continuance of the Jewish people should be aliya and Jewish education and that aliya must be the central Zionist effort in the U.S.
