DICK MCINNES

EDDIE FISHER & HARRY KARL have something else in common now. They both checked into Midway Hospital for various and sundry reasons and were only a room away from each other. No. I don't think they breakfasted together and as far as I know, neither received a get well card from DEBBIE REYNOLDS.

NORMAN LEAR has done it again. It's a spinoff from a spinoff for his Tandem Productions. ESTHER ROLLIE, who is so marvelous as "Florida" on "Maude" which was a spinoff from "All in the Family", has been set to expand her character in "Great Day." "Day" deals with a black family living on the 17th floor in a Chicago ghetto. JOHN AMOS, JANET DUBOIS, RALPH CARTER, and JAMES WALKER co-star. "Day" and "Dirty Sally" starring JEANETTE NOLAN & DACK RAMBO replace "Calucci's Department" & "Roll Out" on Friday nights in 1974. "Sally" is about a salty old woman who travels the West in a wagon pulled by a mule, salvaging junk for sale and meeting with a variety of people & experiences. Rambo plays a young reformed gunfighter who goes along with Sally on her trip to California.

TAYLOR TRIPPING... Paramount must think they have a winner in ELIZABETH TAYLOR's new film, "Ash Wednesday" because they rushed it into release this week. REX REED hosted a private screening (well, when you're Rex Reed, of course it's private) and has been raving about Elizabeth's appearance and performance.. Doubleday is so excited about DICK SHEPPARD's book, "Elizabeth...the life and Career of Elizabeth Taylor" that they're holding off until next fall so they can do a big number on the book as the ideal Christmas gift. I've read it and it's fascinating.

Speaking of books, Arlington House is releasing JAMES PARISH's "The R.K.O. Gals" in March. "Gals" will cover the career rises of 14 actresses who got their start at RKO. LUCILLE BALL, KATHERINE HEPBURN, GINGER ROGERS, MAUREEN O'HARA & JOAN FONTAINE are among those ladies.

TRIPPING AROUND...CHITA RIVERA in Chicago doing "Jacques Brel Is Alive and Well and Living in Paris" and I wish she would do something here in Hollywood...ELLEN BURSTYN's star is still rising. She's just been signed for the femme lead in "Alice Doesn't Live Here Anymore". MARTIN SCORSESE (of "Mean Streets" fame) will direct and DAVID SUSSKIND produces...PAUL McCARTNEY is planning a TV special with TWIGGY. That's some combination...JOAN BLONDELL guest stars on "The New Dick Van Dyke Show" playing his aunt and son NORMAN S. POWELL directs her. In case you don't know it, Norman is Joan's son by DICK POWELL...FRITZ THE CAT lives again. A sequel to the phenomenally successful "Fritz the Cat" is in the works. AIP who was smart enough to snap up the original also releases the new STEVE KRANTZ Production.

Speaking of snapping up, MGM is releasing "Kazablan", an all Israeli musical filmed entirely in English. "Kazablan" is a contemporary story filmed in Jerusalem and the Old Jaffa quarter of Tel Aviv and stars international singing star, YEHORAM GAON in the title role. In its first 10 weeks in 10 Israeli theatres it was seen by more than 1,000,000 people and that's more than one third of Israel's entire population. I'm going to see it this week so I'll be telling you more about the picture. I'm also telling you to have a good week.

The Clark County Ministerial Association will hold its annual city-wide Thanksgiving Day Worship Service this year at 10:00 a.m. at the Guardian Angel Shrine.

The Association is happy to announce that Rabbi Philip Shnairston of Temple Beth Shalom will be the main speaker for this special worship service.

The Ministerial Association invites all members of the Las Vegas Community to come together in the ecumenical service of worship on Thanksgiving Day.
