HELP, HELP, Jan Hess, President of B'nai B'rith Women's Chapter, needs help in lining up the past presidents. Could you please take a moment of your time and send in the year or years you have served? Somehow the scrap book giving this information cannot be located. Thanks, thanks, and more thanks. It maybe hard to believe but this chapter is now 30 years old and to think that Sallie Gordon started this, giving much time, effort and many dollars so that you gals could have such a wonderful organization to work for.

The Community has gained two more attorneys. Michael Singer and Gerald Welt, they are associated with Beckely, DeLandy and Jemison, Congratulations.

Our condolences to Dave Bliss on the passing of his brother Sid, who was a former Las Vegas resident.

Dr. Joseph Shalev, newcomer to Las Vegas, has opened his Ophthalmology Office, perhaps now there will not be such a long wait for an appointment.

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

The J. C. C. flag football teams sought revenge last week against Gearson Park and revenge is what they received.

J. C. C. team #1 crushed Gearson Park #2 by a margin of 25-6. Team #1 quarterback Brian Spector threw four touchdown passes. Spector connected with Clay Vaughn for two and Robert Engel for two.

J. C. C. team #2 also played Gearson Park #2. It ended up as a 13-13 tie. In that battle Barry Montana caught two of quarterback Bob Sherman's long "bombs". Two great defensive plays of the game were interceptions by Donald Harris.
