Sincere apologies to Barbara and Sam, Beauticians of perfection for the omission of their names from the article in the column last week. As an addition, it would be to your advantage if I tell you about the two manicurists that are busily engaged in making your nails look extra beautiful as well as relaxing you while getting a pedicure. Millie and Jeannie are their names. Jeannie will paint butterflies, etc. on your hand nails which are very beautiful and yet not very ostentatious. The landmark Beauty Salon is now on the main floor, which makes it much more convenient. There never is a waiting period and you can get through in no time. Prices are as reasonable as can be and service is given with a smile.

ISRAEL NOT NEGLECT SOCIAL PROBLEMS

JERUSALEM (WNS) - Police Minister Shlomo Hillel warned that Israel cannot neglect its social problems despite the heavy economic burden imposed by war.

"The problems of society and welfare are now more urgent than ever," he told a one-day conference of the Executive of the World Sephardi Federation.

Hillel pointed out that the government had promised young couples they would receive good housing and this promise is even more pressing now since many of the prospective recipients had just fought for their country.
