

PEACE CONFERENCE

and normal movements of people and ideas across borders, the territorial issue would be less acute. But if peace was merely a synonym for a fragile cease-fire, then Israel's "indispensible condition" for territorial security would be "more severe," he said.

Meanwhile the U.S. and the Soviet Union have invited Egypt, Syria and Jordan to participate in the conference in Geneva and the U.S. alone invited Israel since the USSR does not have diplomatic relations with Israel. The two superpowers decided not to invite the Palestinians to the conference although they may attend later on as part of the Jordanian delegation.

UN Secretary General Kurt Waldheim is to be invited as an observer although Waldheim reportedly is seeking a more active role.

SHOOTING ERUPTS ON BOTH FRONTS

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Efforts to get the stalled Israel-Egyptian cease-fire talks moving continued against the background of new shooting incidents on both the Egyptian and Syrian fronts.

Two Israeli soldiers were wounded during a four-hour exchange of shell-fire and anti-tank missiles which began when Syrian forces opened fire on Israeli positions.

Earlier an Israeli soldier was wounded when Egyptian troops fired on Israeli forces in the Ismailia region of the Suez Canal.

Egyptians made several unsuccessful attempts to break into no-man's land.

On the Lebanese border, a Katyusha shell pierced the wall of a house in Kibbutz Dafneh in Upper Galilee.

Meanwhile Defense Minister Moshe Dayan met in Jerusalem with Gen. Ensio Siiasvuo, commander of the United Nations Emergency Force (UNEF) and Foreign Minister Abba

Eban and Israel's chief negotiator, Gen Aharon Yariv met with the American Ambassador, Kenneth Keating.

EGYPT'S BRUTALITY AGAINST ISRAEL POWs

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Israeli authorities have amassed evidence of systematic beatings and degradation of Israeli prisoners of war by their Egyptian captors which ended only three days before last month's POW exchange began.

The evidence, compiled by the Army and the Ministry of Defense will be presented to the United Nations and the International Red Cross.

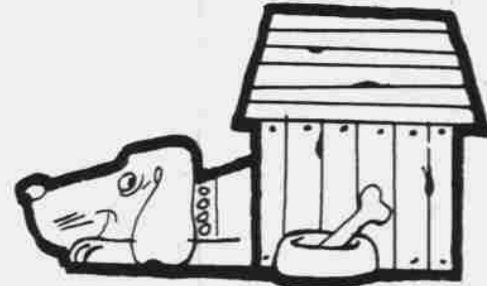

According to the evidence, every Israeli POW regardless of rank, was subjected to brutality.

Egyptian authorities also participated in or permitted the murder of POWs, particularly pilots who had bailed out of their planes safely. Some prisoners are believed to have died while undergoing interrogation.
