

MRS. MEIR SEEKS GENUINE PEACE

JERUSALEM (WNS)-Premier Golda Meir told 75 American Jewish leaders that Israel will go to the Geneva peace conference in the hope of reaching a genuine peace with the Arab states. "True peace, not a piece of paper," Addressing a banquet marking the close of the second Seminar of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, Mrs. Meir expressed disappointment that at the Arab summit meeting in Algiers there was "not one real sign that they (the Arabs) wanted peace." She stressed the need for secure, defensible borders saying an international guarantee cannot be a substitute.

Earlier, Jacob Stein, chairman of the Presidents Conference, assured Israelis that American Jewry will support them to the hilt.

NIXON ASSURES ISRAEL SUPPORT

WASHINGTON (WNS) After a meeting between President Nixon and Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and 22 Congressional leaders, Senate Minority Leader Hugh Scott (R. Pa.) said that Nixon stressed the U.S. commitment to the "sovereignty of Israel" and the "Israel's sovereignty should not be infringed upon."

But Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman J. William

Fulbright said that Kissinger had indicated that the Arab oil embargo is unlikely to be withdrawn until the Geneva peace conference produces progress for the Arabs.

Meanwhile, a special bipartisan group of 21 members of the House Armed Services Committee found "hopeful signs" for an Egyptian-Israeli peace.
