Britain and Israel in the near future. Eban said the policies of both Britain and France during the war forfeited for them any future role in the Middle East and said Israel now has no confidence in either country.

CEASEFIRE VIOLATIONS

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Moshe Barnea, secretary of Amnesty International in Israel, which sponsors the Public Committee for Israeli POWs, has charged several Egyptian violations since the ceasefire.

He said an Israeli ambulance helicopter marked with a Red Magen David was shot down killing an Israeli physician tending the wounded in the copter.

Barnea also blamed the Red Cross which up to now has refused to recognize Red Magen David's equal rights with the Red Cross and the Syrian Red Crescent.

ISRAEL CONCERNED WITH BLOCKADE

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The continued blockade of the straits of Bab el Mandab, the narrow neck of water connecting the Indian Ocean and the Red Sea, is being viewed with increasing concern by Israel.

Israel has been unable to move out 13 freighters stuck in Eilat at the head of the Gulf of Aqaba, many of them with full cargoes for African and Far Eastern ports, because two Egyptian destroyers and several submarines patrol the straits.

MISSING POW FAMILIES STAGE UPROAR

JERUSALEM (WNS) Relatives of missing soldiers caused an uproar and broke windows in the Knesset area in a demonstration over the plight of their loved ones.

After being told they could not see Premier Golda Meir or Defense Minister Moshe Dayan they started heaving rocks and surging through the Knesset gates and up to the building itself. The Knesset guards refrained from using force.

A Delegation of the demonstrators met with six Knesset members and complained of the treatment they have been receiving from the army bureaucrats. Another delegation met with Knesset Speaker Yisrael Yeshayahu who promised them a meeting with Mrs. Meir or Dayan.

Earlier in New York, Rep. Bella S. Abzug called for a joint U.S. Soviet resolution to the United Nations requiring Syria to adhere to basic international law and humanitarian considerations concerning prisoners of war.

The New York congress-woman released photos given her by Mrs. Meir showing the result of Syrian atrocities against captured Israeli prisoners.

NEW YORK, N.Y. -- The Central Conference of American Rabbis has called upon United Nation's Secretary General Waldheim and U.S. Ambassador John Scali to utilize their good offices in preventing further anti-Semitic slurs against Jews and Judaism by certain ambassadors during the discussions currently being held on the Middle East in both the Security Council and the General Assembly.
