

EINSTEIN HEBREW SCHOOL
KIDNAPPING TELETHON

JERRY COLLINS AND PEPPER DAVIS, MEMBERS OF THE EINSTEIN GANG, DISCUSSING THE KIDNAPPING OF JERRY VALE.

A Million Telethon, benefiting the scholarship fund of a new non-profit school in Las Vegas, the Albert Einstein Hebrew Day School will be held the night of Sunday, December 16. The show will emceed live from the TV studios of Channel 8, from 11 p.m. to 2 A.M.

A Fantastic first for Las Vegas, the telethon will star a number of local and national celebrities who will be held captive on TV until a ransom is paid for their release. These stars, who will be "kidnapped" from their homes and places of business, will be shown bound and shackled on TV.

Two fabulous local beauties, armed with machine guns and attired in zaster-style pin-stripes and hot pants, will effect the kidnappings. The getaway sedan, a vintage black Maria, will be driven by a well-known state official, and ringer for Lon Chaney.

Many prominent local people will be kidnapped. Check your local papers and keep listening to your radio and TV for the answer to the question: Who will be kidnapped next? It could be you!

Chief among the numerous MC's who will plead for ransom money is hilarious Pepper Davis, publicity director of the Hacienda. In addition to many comedy stars who will appear for the benefit, the musical entertainment will be provided by a well-known 16-piece band, now back in town from a tour of the continent.

All money donated as ransom is fully tax-deductible for this worthy cause, the Albert Einstein Hebrew School.
