

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Deputy Secretary of State Kenneth Rush told the House Foreign Affairs Committee that the Administration wants congress to appropriate the entire $2.2 billion in emergency aid to Israel because "we must make it clear to our friends in Israel and to those who have opposed her in the past that we will see to it that Israel has the weapons to defend herself effectively."

AAJE Cites Ben Gurion

NEW YORK -- The following statement was issued this week by Robert H. Arnow, president of the American Association for Jewish Education, in memorial tribute to the late David Ben-Gurion:

"The passing of David Ben-Gurion leaves an irreplaceable void among the Jewish people. His dynamic statesmanship -- manifested in unyielding efforts to see Zion reborn and sustained through the reality of a national Jewish homeland -- was combined with an equally unyielding commitment to the intellectual quality of Jewish life. This was a lifelong concern, demonstrated time and again by his affirmation of the study of the Bible, and of Jewish history and teachings, as essential elements of Jewry's creative survival. The American Association for Jewish Education deeply mourns his loss."
