The General Manager of the Desert Inn & Country Club, Frank A. Modica, announced that the hotel has acquired the $100,000.00 women's pro golf tournament known as the Sealy-Faberge Golf Classic which has awarded the winner of the premier celebrity-pro event the richest first prize in the history of women's competitive sports. The tournament has played at the Desert Inn for the past three years and will now be known as The Desert Inn Classic. The dates are set for June 6-9 in association with the Las Vegas Variety Club which has in the past afforded the club an opportunity to help increase funds for education.
