Myron Friedman, is associated with the MGM Grand Hotel.

The Landmark Beauty shop is now on the main floor. The shop is attractive, light and very pleasant, a good place to relax. There are enough operators so that waiting is at a minimum. The operators are Jeanne, Gladys, Sam, Dorothy and Barbara. From conversations that I hear, why wait for an operator? Give these gals a try and you may be pleasantly surprised, and no time will be wasted sitting around for your next!

Ever tasted pretzel. This is a very hard Matzoh, but flavored delicious. These crackers can now be purchased here in town, if interested. Call me and I will tell you where you can get them. Price, the same as in Los Angeles.

Lyle Forrest, 876-0160, is selling a very small whirlpool bath unit, that fits on the side of your bathtub. Price is right too. If interested, please call him for further information. Helps to relax you and is very good for arthritis, rheumatism, tired feet and anything else that might ail you where a bath can help. Size 15 x 10 inches. Interesting. Eh.

To Jimmy & Sophie Katzman, long time residents of Las Vegas, and a wonderful couple, many happy, happy anniversaries. They are celebrating their 30th. Son David, Alladin executive, and daughter Elaine Gill, surprised their parents with something special. Mazel Tov.

Sylvia and Alfred Koch, another wonderful couple celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. Unfortunately this celebration was marred due to the passing of Alfred's brother in England. When in Vegas Village, do stop and say "Hi" to Alfred, who smilingly waits on his customers in the gift and jewelry shop in that market.

Bob Unger, assistant to the president (Aladdin hotel) was wed to Aydie Goldstein. Congratulations are a bit late, but I know they will be accepted.

Belated wishes to Irene & Sam Dvorak who too celebrated their anniversary.
