STAR TRIPPING...Very happy to report that SUSAN HAYWARD is solidly on the Road to Recovery. She has been seen shopping in Beverly Hills and that snappy Hayward walk is as strong as ever. Her handsome son TIM BARKER told me that she's feeling and looking very good. So good in fact, that she's busy redecorating her home...DOROTHY LAMOUR is back on the road again. This time to New Orleans. After a super successful trip to Australia, she just signed to do "Fallen Angels" for six weeks in Shreveport and then on to New Orleans for six weeks. Lamour, a former Miss New Orleans herself, has requested the management to close the show for four days during Mardi Gras feeling that no one will stop long enough to sit through the whole show...Sight of the week was MICHAEL ANSARA at "Hollywood Welcome" party for National Enquirer Hollywood Bureau. He was seen reading the front page of the new issue which sports a shot of separated wife BARBARA

GOOD VIBRATIONS ARE EMANATING FROM THE NIGHAWK LOUNGE WHERE W.W. FANCY LAYS DOWN A GROOVE THAT SAYS "RIGHT ON" AS THEY PUT FORTH A CONTEMPORARY SOUND THAT KEEPS PATRONS COMING BACK FOR MORE. ENTERTAINMENT FROM 8:30 p.m.

EDEN & her new beau, CHARLES FEGERT. No comment from Mr. Ansara. Others toasting the health of the Enquirer were MERCEDES MC CAMBRIDGE, KAREN BLACK & SKIP BURTON, REID SMITH, TOM KENNEDY, GISELE MACKENZIE, MARTY & FRENCHIE ALLEN and practically every press agent in town.

If you wonder what has happened to those really good character actors, trip over, to the Huntington Hartford Theatre in Hollywood. EDWARD ANDREWS, PEGGY CASS, CASS DALEY, JAMES FLAVIN, CONRAD JANIS, HAROLD J. KENNEDY (he also directed)... RUSSELL NYPE, NATALIE SCHAFER, VITO SCOTTI & CHARLES all have meaty parts in BEN HECHT & CHARLES MACARTHURS "The Front Page" and as usual they all turn in flawless performances. HUGH O'BRIAN & BERT CONVY have the male leads and as competent as they are, they are just as miscast. Those two roles are really character roles and should be cast as such. TISHA STERLING is not only gorgeous but she does have talent. I missed Schafer the night I saw the play but BARBARA MORRISON...

Another fine actress, did a splendid job. "The Front Page" was originally produced in 1928 but its subplot of corruption in political places is pretty timely now and with the proper leads and a stronger director, it might have been a smash. As it is, it's good entertainment. BILLY WILDER is now prepping his screen version with WALTER MATTHAU & JACK LEMMON in the leads. Now, that should be interesting.

Looking for a truly elegant and unusual gift? You can't go wrong with an exciting new book "Champagne" by WILLIAM KAUFMAN. (Viking..$25.00). Mr. Kaufman informs us that there is only one champagne, the wine that comes from CHAMPAGNE, a small District in France. All others are simply sparkling wine. In addition to the fascinating history of champagne, the book has the most beautiful pictures I've ever seen. They were all done by the author and include great posters, labels, vineyards, etc. Plus a chapter of recipes in which the main ingredient is...you guessed it...champagne. There's also a tip for the ladies from Madame Pompaour herself, "Champagne is the only wine a woman can drink and still remain beautiful". That's from an expert which is exactly what Kaufman is too. Take a look at his book the next time you're in a book store, I bet you fall in love with it. It's a bit expensive but like a truly good wine, it's worth it.

Make this week worth, smile a lot and spread a little happiness.
