Many elderly people in greater Las Vegas are lonely, don't eat right and have no contact with the outside world. These people need a friend. Your opportunity to "adopt" a friend is available by contacting the Voluntary Action Center at 319 South Third, 382-5260.

Sisterhood members had a most successful card party. It was a pleasant and profitable evening for some, but more important many members renewed acquaintances. Since the town has grown so fast it is difficult to see one another as everyone seems to be involved with their families. Raffles were many and the selection of the raffles was most interesting. You bought a raffle ticket on the appliance etc, that you were interested in, and then the tickets were drawn from that one particular lot.

Governor O'Callahan appointed Gary Silverman (Graduate of Las Vegas High) son of Mr. & Mrs. Louis Silverman, to the Nevada State Welfare Board. Gary lives in Reno with his wife Pam and two sons, Aaron Jacob age 6, David Benjamin age 5.

Want something new? Instead of streaking, New York beauticians are using something called "Painting the Hair". My beautician Dorothy, does this very well and of course, she is at the Landmark Beauty Salon, along with all the other excellent beauticians. Another excellent and attractive hair stylist joined the staff by the name of Linda. With two manicurists, Jeanne & Millie to also do pedicures and eye brows there is no waiting and for you girls who work all week and want to come in on Sundays you'll always find Gladys and Sam to make you beautiful.

Elsie and Les Golding along with son Dick had a delightful surprise for Dick's wife Angela at the Golding home with cocktails before dinner for the guests and then yummy Italian food was served. It was a very pleasant get together for all. Belated birthday wishes to you, Angela.

Word has been received of the death in New York on January 15, of Rabbi Richard W. Winegrad, former director of the University of Wisconsin Hillel Foundation. Rabbi Winegrad, his wife Cynthia, and their three children had been living in Jerusalem since 1972. A committee has been formed in Madison under the chairmanship of Prof. Burton Fisher of the University of Wisconsin Sociology Dept., to solicit the Rabbi Richard Winegrad Trust Fund to aid in the education of the Winegrad children. Contributions are being actively solicited nationally from former students, faculty and friends at the University of Wisconsin, Rabbi Winegrad's associates in the Rabbinate (he was ordained at Jewish Theological Seminary in 1961), and members of the local Madison community. Donations may be sent to: Hillel Foundation, 610 Langdon Street, Madison, Wis., 53703.
