HANK GREENSPUN'S PACK OF UNTRUTHS DEFAMES SUPREME, DIST. CT. JUDGES

US SUCCESSFUL GETTING JEWS FROM USSR

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said here that the United States has been successful in getting the Soviet Union to allow Jews to emigrate.

Responding to a query on Soviet-American detente at the Yale-Harvard-Princeton Club here, Kissinger said American "concern with detente has been directed to moderate Soviet foreign policy and that has been on the whole successful with occasional aberrations which is inevitable when nations have client states all over the world." He noted that because of the threat of nuclear holocaust, the U.S. has sought to end the arms race and bring about commercial and cultural ties.

When appropriate, he said, "we have used our influence, and successful, as in the case of Jewish emigration, but we shall not play with the danger of nuclear war and not turn this into an issue of domestic debate."

Meanwhile in London, Harold Miller, deputy chairman of the Zionist Federation has compiled statistics on aliya from the USSR. They show the following emigrants to Israel by years: 1951-186; 1952-56; 1953-39; 1954-26; 1955-123; 1956-460; 1957-1314; 1958-720; 1959-1353; 1960-1917; 1961-216; 1962-184; 1963-304; 1964-530; 1965-887; 1966-2027; 1967-1380; 1968-224; 1969-3011; 1970-982; 1971-12,687; 1972-32,000. The provisional figure for 1973 is 34,750.

EBAN INSISTS ON SYRIAN NEGOTIATIONS

JERUSALEM (WNS)- The Israeli government has denied that it is wavering on its determination not to begin disengagement talks with Syria until lists of Israeli POWs are provided and the International Red Cross is allowed to visit them.

The Prime Ministers Office in a statement affirmed that Israel's position remained unchanged and has been restated to "international bodies working to bring about an agreement between the two countries."

Foreign Minister Abba Eban has admitted that the U.S. has suggested that Israel exchange views with Syria before the submission of a list. He noted that there were signs that Syria was willing to negotiate thru the U. S.

Meanwhile fierce exchanges of fire continued to be exchanged on the Syrian border.

His Prostituted Sun Judges the Judges

A thieving cop or a degenerate man of the cloth is a pretty low creature, but the absolute bottom of human defilement is a newspaperman who distorts the truth.

As we have often repeated, the only way to combat a dishonest newspaper is with an honest one. If the victim of a false report is a well known personality, while a reputation may be tarnished, there is always recourse to court and a possible money judgement, for whatever appeasement it may be. But when a newspaperman attacks a judge there is no way to turn. A crooked jurist, and there have been a few, should be exposed, tried and punished as any criminal. A judge who is the recipient of false charges cannot offer denial, nor answer to explain or refute the accusations. He must maintain his dignity. That's where we come in.

Last Sunday Sun Publisher Hank Greenspun went into another of his tantrums. This time he lashed out in blinded fury at judges high and low, disregarding fact, ignoring reason and hurling accusative vituperations in his witch hunt to discredit Howard Hughes.

He commences by generalizing about the conscience of public officials being only a wholesome fear of the newspapers. This may be true about a crooked politician OR a dishonest newspaper. Honest politicians cherish newspapers. Honest newspapers do not instill fear. It is true, also, as Greenspun points out that a guerulous newspaper aborts graft and corruption. He means an honest guerulous newspaper. What would Greenspun know about that?

Then he dives into what he is driving at with the following abortion. Said Greenspun:

A little over a year ago, I was censured by the Clark County Bar Association for writing critical column about a judge of the 8th Judicial District. What bothered me was why Judge Howard Babcock continued to ignore the admonition of the Nevada Supreme Court which ordered him to grant a petition for the deposition of Howard Hughes in the Robert Maheu matter.

(We reprint the full text of the Resolution reader may judge for himself the merits of the document.)

But when Greenspun states the Nevada Supreme Court ordered Judge Babcock to grant the deposition, the Sun publisher is stretching the truth. At the time it very well could have been his own interpretation of the high court ruling but a subsequent decision has proven him wrong, totally, wholly and unequivocally.

But it does not phase Greenspun, who continued with:

Over three years has gone by since the attempt at the right of discovery which is the most basic right in civil law and to date no order has been issued although the Supreme Court has twice commanded it.

We have before us the text of the opinions of the Supreme Court justices and no where do we find command to Babcock to issue an order for deposition. The rulings were made in 1972.

Legally, if a district judge disobeys an order by the Supreme Court a petition for writ of mandamus is issued commanding the order be obeyed. On May 30, 1973 the petition for mandamus was denied by the Supreme Court. How dare Greenspun, at this time, state the Supreme Court has twice commanded it?
