

ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD
DICK MCINNES

STRIP TRIPPING.....Made my first trip to Las Vegas in some time and there have been some changes. Of course the biggest is not having the signs lit up because of the energy crisis. There is no talent crisis however, Las Vegas still offers the very best of the entertainment world and although it costs a lot more, it's still a trip.....The double whammy show was JULIET PROWSE & RICH LITTLE at the Desert Inn. Juliet is sheer perfection and her "Bolero" number is the epitome of the finale for a star. WOW! I also loved her "Hollywood Went Latin in the 40s". It's pure camp. Little has definitely blossomed into the complete performer. His material is tops, his mimicry is the greatest and his own personality is super.....DIANA ROSS held court at Caesar's and her subjects are treated royally. One of the really great ladies of song, she never disappoints her audience. She is always in top shape (by the way, this is the first time that I've seen her at Caesar's when she wasn't pregnant) and gives, gives, gives. DAVID BRENNER opened the show and he is definitely on his way. Sharp material, a winning delivery and thank heavens, not a stereotype Vegas comedian. A funny boy.....The other top DIANA on the strip is DIANA TRASK who has joined the ranks of the superstars with her 100% billing with DANNY THOMAS at the Sands. She deserves every inch of it too. Whether it be a ballad like "Alone Again, Naturally" or a rousing "Kansas City", the Trask style is where it's at. She is a winner! And what can you say about Danny that hasn't been said? He's a master with his audience. He sends out warmth and love and gets it back tenfold. He's a joy to watch.

LOUNGE HOPPING....ROSLYN KIND, in the Flamingo Lounge, is reaching for her place in the sun. She's BARBRA STREISAND's sister and although that sounds like a nice position, it sometimes can be a pain. Rosalyn has had to fight much harder to get somewhere and her current stand shows her hard work, and her current stand shows her hard work. Her "Sunday" medley, a super exciting version of "My Funny Valentine" (which should be recorded as is) and an up "Birth of the Blues" show a very strong talent. It's only a matter of time before she reaches the top....The group that followed Roslyn really knocked me out. I had stayed by accident and I must say they are a super trip. They are "Tomorrow's Sunshine", a young, good looking, talented group of Texans who can do anything. "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy", a 60s medley, a tribute to the Carpenters and even on to SLY AND

THE FAMILY STONE". Dynamite!!!
 GOSSIP TRIPPING....LIZA MINELLI & FABIAN arrived at MARK TAN's fabulous party (more on that next week) doing the hand holding bit. Is this an item or are they show biz buddies???...Will "Hooray for Hollywood" ever open at the Grand? Seems over 4 million dollars have been poured into it. A cast of 125 is on full salary and has been for months. The three elevators to be used in the production won't work. The Humane Society is on their backs about the two dolphins who have been trained to strip the ESTHER WILLIAMS type after she dives into a huge aqua tank. Rumors are that 2 to 3 million is needed to open it. The old MGM ers could have handled this. Can the new ones????....

Don't you hassle this week. More on Las Vegas and Me next week.
