

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

TEL AVIV (WNS)--The final number of Israeli dead during the Yom Kippur War and after has been officially put at 2521.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- At least 17 Moscow Jews and more than 50 Jews in other cities were arrested by Soviet authorities as they were attempting to present a petition signed by 200 Jews appealing for emigration rights and demonstrating their sympathy with Jewish activists David Azbel and Ida Nudel who are on a hunger strike in Moscow.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger wound up his latest shuttle-diplomacy tour of the Middle East with agreements by Israel and Syria to send representatives to Washington for separate meetings with him on a disengagement agreement.

BUENOS AIRES (WNS) --- The DAIA, Argentine Jewry's central agency, has complained to Col. Diego Enrique Perkins, chairman of the Federal Committee For Radio and Television, about a program on the official television station which presented "the most insidious and gross Nazi calumnies" against Jews and Zionism.

MIAMI BEACH (WNS) -- Israel Bonds launched the "biggest campaign for Israel's support since it was founded 26 years ago" with an inaugural dinner here at which an initial sale of $178,113,000 was announced.

MIAMI BEACH (WNS) -- "There are prospects for progress toward understanding and peace between Israel and the Arab states," according to Yosef Tekoah, Israel's Ambassador to the United Nations.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Jewish leaders here have voiced concern about an attempt by the Philippine government to blame its setback in relations with Arab oil countries on the Associated Press bureau chief in Manila, Arnold Zettlin, because he is Jewish.

WASHINGTON (WNS) ---Both Egypt and Israel have sent invitation to President Nixon to visit their countries.

LONDON (WNS) --- The new House of Commons has 41 Jewish members including 35 Labor MPs, five Conservatives and one Liberal.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Foreign Minister Abba Eban declared here that there was no reason for Israelis to be demoralized. "The people stand with both feet on the ground and holds in its hands the resources for its future," he told the American Jewish Congress convention.

BRITISH CHIEF RABBI Israelite Ads Pay RAPS NRP

LONDON (WNS) -- Britain's Chief Rabbi Immanuel Jakobovits, has charged that the National Religious Party, by refusing to join a coalition government in Israel over the Who is a Jew issue, has inflicted a "disastrous blow to the vital national and religious interests of the Jewish people at a time of supreme crisis."

He said that the NRP tactics has not succeeded in getting the Law of Return amended and will result in religious influence no longer being felt within the government.

Rabbi Jakobovits said that while "all committed Jews are deeply concerned to resolve the Who is a Jew issue...a principle of such universal ramifications should not be determined by political bargaining."
