

MRS. MEIR OUT, IN

in either the Knesset or the nation. Dayan earlier met with Katzir to discuss the possibility of creating a national unity government. Katzir, who privately favors such a government, reportedly told Dayan that since he has given the mandate to Mrs. Meir he had no legal right to intervene.

After Mrs. Meir's departure, the Labor party leaders approved the new Cabinet list she presented to them. She left six vacant ministries out of nineteen. This included Interior, Welfare and Religion which were left open should the National Religious Party decide to join the coalition. Also left open were a new Information ministry as well as transportation and Labor, with Rafi, if it recanted, given a choice of two and the third going to Labor's Jerusalem strongman and Knesset faction chairman Moshe Baram.

Mrs. Meir had named as new Cabinet officials Yitzhak Rabin, Defense Minister; Haim Zadok, Justice Minister; former Tel Aviv Mayor Yehoshua Rabinowitz, Housing Minister; Aharon Uzan, the Moshav leader, Communications, and Gideon Hausner, Minister-without-Portfolio. Labor leaders later were trying to get Mrs. Meir to change her mind although she was reported adamant. Speculation centered on what Katzir would do now and to whom he would give the mandate if Mrs. Meir went through with her plans to return it to him.

TWO END HUNGER STRIKE IN RUSSIA

GALATSKY RUBIN AZBEL

NEW YORK (WNS)- Vitaly Rubin and Vladimir Galatsky ended their hunger strike but David Azbel in whose apartment they protest action was being held is continuing, according to the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry.

Rubin, a Sinologist, and Galatsky, an artist, decided to end their strike after 11 days following an appeal by all the senior professors at Israeli universities and technical schools which urged them to do so for the sake of their health.

But Azbel, a professor of technical sciences, reportedly responded that he felt he must continue the strike action despite the fact that he is extremely weak and can hardly stand up. Another Moscow Jew seeking an exit visa, Ida Nudel, has also gone on a hunger strike in her apartment. Earlier the wives of the three hunger strikers appealed to the women of the world "to help us in the struggle for our rights." In the appeal, made public by the National Conference on Soviet Jewry, they noted that, "our husbands have been practically deprived of the possibility to provide for our families."

Owning silver isn't like money in the bank.

It's far better.

Inflation has made "safe, conservative" investments such as savings accounts a losing venture. With inflation today at more than 9 per cent and interest at 5 to 6 per cent per year, the value of your savings is shrinking.

But there is a way to protect your hard-earned money. Own hard money. Own silver.

Unlike paper money, silver is a precious metal of universally recognized value. Because industrial demand exceeds production year after year, silver is appreciating faster than inflation.

Here's your opportunity to protect—even increase—the value of your savings. Consider it carefully. Call Continental Silver Corporation today.
