Queen Esther Purim Ball presented by JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

Our Center basket ball teams continue on the path of victory. Our seventh and eighth grade team has won its last four games, including victories over two prominent junior high age teams, the "Bruins" and Vegas Paints. Our high school age team continues to stay in third place in their division.

STEVE

The table soccer type game called Foosball continues to be the most popular sport at the Center. It continues to be more popular than pool, table tennis, bumper pool, and even basketball! So come on down to the Center and try to beat one of the current Foosball champs.

A reminder from John Farrell, Center Sports Coordinator, says that tryouts for our softball team will begin at the end of this month. Last years Center softball team was undefeated and took the invitational city championship. John has an astonishing soft ball record of his own- he has never coached a losing softball game in his coaching career.
