

TURMOIL AT HISTADRUT CONVENTION

TEL AVIV (WNS)-- speeches. Histadrut's 12th national convention ended here after three days of stormy sessions in which jeers, cat-calls and scuffles kept the convention from accomplishing much and prevented most speakers from finishing their

The main hecklers were Black Panthers & followers of the leftist Moked and Meri factions but the right-wing Likud got in its attacks too. When Premier Golda Meir spoke, Panthers yelled "Golda, Queen of the Social Gap. Golda Queen of the Mishap. Golda Resign." Mrs. Meir promised that every effort would be made to close the social gap but noted that in a developing country which needs investments some people would collect a disproportionate share of the income.

practicing two--faced diplomacy and warned the U.S. is moving from unqualified support of Israel to a policy aimed at regaining American influence in the Arab world.

Characterizing Kissinger as "a man of many faces" Morgenthau said the Secretary of State is able to transform himself in every capital into a friend.

The convention adopted resolutions calling for measures to check the inflationary spiral, demanding higher cost-of-living allowances and the exemption of wage fringe benefit from income tax.

KISSINGER TENSION MOUNTS

JERUSALEM (WNS) Two leading speakers at the dedication of the Leonard Davis Institute for International Relations at the Hebrew University differed sharply over the merits of U.S. Sec'y of State Henry A. Kissinger.

Defense Minister Moshe Dayan praised Kissinger's mediation efforts between Israel and the Arab states and called the American "the best diplomat in the world." But Prof. Hans Morgenthau, a prominent American political scientist, charged Kissinger with
