

U.S. FRIENDSHIP TO ARABS BENEFITS ISRAEL

HOUSTON (WNS)---- "Being a friend of one of Israel's neighbors does not make us an enemy of Israel," President Nixon told a nationally televised question-and-answer program at the Nat'l Assoc. of Broadcasters convention here.

He said the U.S. would seek to improve its relations with Egypt and other Arab countries & this would benefit Israel since the U.S. would be "able to influence and perhaps restrain their policies. Nixon said that the Arab condition that the lifting of the oil embargo will be reviewed in June would not deter the U.S. from its present peace making efforts in the Middle East.

He stressed that there can be no permanent peace in the Mideast unless both the U.S. and the Soviet Union desire it. He said that when he meets Soviet Communist Party Sec'y Leonid Brezhnev later this year "the problem of peace in the Middle East will be high on the agenda."

U.S. FUNDS BUILD ABSORPTION CENTER

REHOVOT (WNS)--- American Ambassador Kenneth B. Keating, speaking at a dedication ceremony for a four-building absorption center for Soviet immigrants, said, "This center is a link in a chain that brings a people whose sufferings are among mankind's shame to a nation that is very special and precious to them."

Noting that the center was built by funds provided by the American people, Keating asserted, "There is also the encouraging aspect of my own country helping another nation to settle people from a third nation....It is the right thing to do."

The funds for the center were part of a $75 million grant given to the United Israel and handed back his 13 medals, including the Order of the Red Banner, according to sources here.

He said he was protesting the treatment of Jews in the Soviet and the refusal of the authorities to grant him a visa to emigrate to Israel.

It was also reported here that Feldman, who is serving a 3 1/2 year sentence in a strict regime, has begun a hunger strike to protest against his solitary confinement.
