THE PLAGUES OF EGYPT

NEW YORK, NY -- Reform Jews this year will be observing their Passover holiday with a new Haggadah prayerbook, the first in 50 years, in their commemoration of the Jewish festival marking the exodus of the ancient

LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE Israelites from Egypt. (Passover begins at sundown on April 6.)

The new worship volume, seven years in the making, has been prepared by the Central Conference of American Rabbis.

Leonard Baskin, noted artist, has provided 20 new watercolor illustrations depicting the characters and symbolisms of the Passover ritual. The art reflects Mr. Baskin's rugged and unique vision of the human condition as well as his deeply motivated Jewish roots. He has provided a new application of his artistic talents in vivid renditions.

A trade edition of the Haggadah (10 x 14) will be released by Grossman Publishers, a division of The Viking Press, to be sold in the 715 Reform synagogues either separately or as part of a family package containing a deluxe version and ten soft cover books. Costs are $17.50 and $3.00 individually, or $47.50 for the package.

FRIDAY, APR. 5, 1974
