Dear Sir:

We, the staff at the Foster Grandparent Program wish to thank you for your article on Child Haven and particularly the mention of our program there.

Articles such as these mean much to the success of the program by getting people interested in it.

Again, we thank you, and wish your paper much success.

Dear Sir:

I am incarcerated and would like to receive, if at all possible, a free copy of your paper or just the pen-pals section.

Dear Jack Tell;
I wish you and the staff of the ISRAELITE a very happy Passover. Yours in comradeship.

Mike Silverman,
(Co-National Recruiting Officer, J.W.V.)

Dear Friends,
I am a prisoner at Washington State Penitentiary and would appreciate any free issues of your paper that you would be kind enough to send me. Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Tell:

We are seeking a publisher for our Anglo-Jewish paper. The position pays well and is, I think, attractive. It provides the publisher with substantial freedom in determining the content of the paper, being creative and in putting together an instrument of value for the community. We want to develop our WISCONSIN JEWISH CHRONICLE into the finest possible publication.

Although the paper is owned by the Federation, it is by no means a "House Organ". It is meant to be a full scale newspaper with the Federation leaning over carefully and discreetly to see to it that the paper has independence but full Federation support.

The position is a very good one and carries with it the opportunity for substantial growth. Possibly someone you know, someone associated with a daily paper, someone on your own staff, someone who would want to enter the field could be available for this position which represents a real opportunity.

HAPPY PASSOVER PAGE TWENTY-SEVEN

Dear Sir,
I am in prison and am very lonely and have no one to write to because I have no family. I would appreciate it if you would print this because I know that it will gain me friends and take away this loneliness. I will answer all letters and wish to write open-minded people. I am a Capricorn.

Thank you,

Terry L. Greenburg

Please do think about it and telephone me with suggestions.
Thanks in advance.

Cordially,

Melvin S. Zaret

(Editor's Note: If I hadn't come to love Las Vegas, and if there were not so many unfinished projects here I would apply for the position myself.) J.T.

Friends:

I am writing you hoping that you will help me. At the present time I am incarcerated in the London Correctional Institution in London, Ohio. I have been away from the "free world" for about 17 months. As I hope to be released from here in August of this year I am also hoping to make new friends.

Correspondence is almost totally necessary for rehabilitation, so I am hoping you will place this ad in your paper. Hopefully someone will write.

Thank you. Frank Icuss No. 136-010
