Jewish Single Adults is holding "Swing into Spring" dance and entertainment, Sunday, April 21 at 7:30 p.m. at Temple Beth Sholom. There will be open bar. Donation $2.00.

Leona Ginnis hosted a birthday party for Bertie Gottesman, whose husband was one of the original owners of the Dunes Hotel. Pretty gals attending this party were: Toby and Debi Cohen, Millie Lasoff, Millie Scott Enzinna, Ann Walker, Angie Donolfo, Tubie Skurow, Roz Porter, Ida Schwartz and Nettie Feinstein. Need I tell you that the gifts were wrapped so colorful, they were useful and pretty. The dessert was the most delicious birthday cake I have tasted in a long time, courtesy of the hostess. Party was held in the Las Vegas Country Club. Many more happy birthdays to you Bertie.

Get well wishes to Susan Molasky.

Happy retirement at this time to Lou Mack, and Irv Fields, who are all vacationing and enjoying their freedom from Business worries.

Yep, most of the time residents who leave Las Vegas find they miss this desert living and return. This too applies to Murray Posin, Attorney, he will be setting up law practice and by the time you read this, his office should be in working order. Murray was gone about five or more years. Good luck Murray, most of your friends are still in Las Remember to bring eye saver banks to this meeting. Submission of eye saver banks will receive double donor credit, this day only.

Vegas and you will not have any difficulty finding them.

The Passover Sedar was a success. About 600 people attended. The food was hot delicious and plenty of it. Services were short and interesting. Everyone looked lovely and may we all be together again next year.

Congratulations to Dr. Marvin Sedway, long time residence of our fair city has been re-appointed to the Las Vegas State Board of Optometry. Dr. Joe Adler is another member on the board.

One of the community favorites, Sidney Pielte has been quite ill and I am happy to report, he is home and doing nicely. Please drop him a note to let him know you care. Thanks.

If ever you wish to see a happy and proud grandmother, look at Kay Wallerstein, who returned from her Grandson's Bar Mitzvah, held in Beverly Hills. The Bar Mitzvah Kenneth Adam Galen (Kay's daughter's pride and joy) did everyone proud. He is so handsome too, no wonder all shepped nachis. Mazel Tov and may all your days be as happy as that day was.

Robert Gelman, son of Sid and Jean (the Seltzer man) will be married to Susan Craught April 12th here in Las Vegas. Robert and Susan are residents of Los Angeles, Calif. Robert is a graduate of University of So. California, majoring in economics. Susan and Robert will honeymoon at the Grand Canyon, a trip to England is planned later in the year. Good luck to you Robert and Susan and may your parents have much nachis from this union.

Justice David Zenoff in town lurching in the Las Vegas Country Club. If the good Judge wanted to talk business, this was not the place as everyone in the clubhouse stopped by to chat. He looks very well and of course, had something to say about his grandchildren and why not! They are our pride and joy.

Regret to tell the many friends of Ruth and Ben Cutler, former residents of Las Vegas, that Ben passed away. Internment took place in Los Angeles where he resided with his wife Ruth. Among his mourners are his wife, son Stephen, daughter Donna Greenberg and grandchild Jason Pace Greenberg. Ben's mother, his three brothers and two sisters all residents of Calif. For those wishing to contact Ruth, her address is 1123 South Hayworth Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif. 90035.

Seen in the new home of Dr. Norman Engel (Housewarming) were Dr. & M. Herbert J. Rowe and daughter, Randy, Judge Seymour Brown, Mr. & Ms. Ed Weinstein, and Dr. Irving Kline. All food was prepared by Mrs. Engle and was it ever delicious. Enjoy your new home, family and friends always.

Why cannot the recipient of a gift find the time to send a thank you note????? Just a little consideration would be so very much appreciated. After all how is one to know their gift has been received?

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

The Las Vegas "Stars" are the champions of the 2nd annual J. C. C. High School Tournament.

Even though the Stars lost the championship game to the North Las Vegas Boy's Club, 60-63, the Boy's Club had to forfeit the title as it was discovered that one player was out of high school and was ineligible to play. Third place was won by the "Truckers" as they beat our J.C.C. team, 71-65, giving the J.C.C. fourth place. Fifth place was captured by the "Greeks", while sixth place went to "Haden's Eagles".

Advancing to the championship in the "A Division" of the junior high tournament is our J.C.C. club along with the St. Christopher Lions. Going into the playoff for third place are "Ruff and Ready" and Garside. Fifth place went to the Rockets as they fired past the Western Bulls, 38-26.

Our 9th grade team is also going to the championship game along with the Bucks in the "B Division" of the junior high tourney. In the battle for third place are the Bruins and Vegas Paints.

John Farrell is officially the new Center Director as Pete Margolis ceremonially handed over the Center keys to John at a surprise farewell party held in honor of Pete. On hand for the party were several former staff including Milt Cornsweet, Mike Levitt, and Jane Anglese, former sec'y who is now at FOCUS.

Jane and Mr. Behar of FOCUS invites all members of the Center and readers of the ISRAELITE to come down to FOCUS and take a look at this community organization.
