

ISRAEL ACCUSES LEBANON FOR HARBORING TERRORISTS

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- Israeli United Nations Ambassador Yosef Tekoah flatly rejected Lebanon's contention that it did not harbor the terrorists who massacred 18 persons at Kiryat Shemona.

"We have come before the Security Council to point again an accusing finger at the government of Lebanon and all others which harbor, assist and cooperate with Arab terrorist organizations and to emphasize that they will not be absolved of their obligation to prevent armed attacks against Israel, whether by regular forces or irregular forces."

Lebanon, which had complained to the Security Council about the Israeli commando raid into Southern Lebanon, called for economic sanctions against Israel. Egyptian Foreign Minister Ismail Fahmy accused Israel of aggression and warned that if Israel wants peace, it must stop forthwith all "irresponsible actions."

However, Fahmy did not repeat his earlier threat made to newsmen that Egypt would "strike" at Israel if it continued retaliatory action against Lebanon and Syria. Tekoah replied that he was shocked that Fahmy had come "all the way from Cairo in order to explain away and to defend those who committed the barbaric massacre at Kiryat Shemona." He said Israel does not have to choose between peace and war since "Israel chose peace 26 years ago when it called for peace with its Arab neighbors even while Egypt was leading an invasion of Israel."

Tekoah later denounced Iraq's membership and current presidency of the Security Council, its pro-Nazi record in World War II and the last minute joining of its alliance against the Axis powers. He urged Council members to disqualify the Iraqi representative, Talib el-Shibib, from presiding. Shibib replied that the General Assembly elected Iraq to the Council and Iraq was there by the will of the world community and not subject to Israel's "whims and desires." The Council adjourned without setting a new meeting date.
