BITS AND PIECES.....Word from LA is that the new "in spot" in discotheques is Studio One which now occupies the premises of the old Factory. The new owners are planning to add special live entertainment in one of the six showroom areas early this Summer.....Zany CRAIG RUSSELL the hilarious Canadian impressionist who just closed at the MGM's Lion's Den pops up next at another Den - The Pirates - in Tucson. Barry's one man crusade to glamorize baldness, by the way, is starting to show some results. Dave's audiences respond to his Bald I Beautiful by tossing toupees and hairpieces on stage. Nothing quite so exciting as the things Tom Jones & Elvis Presley get thrown up at them but you have to start somewhere!!.....LENNY MARTIN, well known here as a producer and personal manager has been named Entertainment Coordinator for the Sahara Hotel. First rumor Martin will have to contend with is that the Sahara will be losing one of its super attractions in 1975. ## SINATRA, FITZGERALD, BASIE AT CAESARS

The tempo is straight up--and rising -- now at Caesars Palace with the greatest jazz-pop show ever presented in a night club in the hotel--casino's Circus Maximus theatre-restaurant.

FRANK

Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald and Count Basie and His Orchestra are the headliners.

When Sinatra ended his three-year absence from cabarets with a one-week engagement at Caesars Palace last January he turned Las Vegas upside down.

King Frank and Queen Ella are hailed as the finest male and female vocalists who ever lived. The song stylings of these non-pareil legends. Sinatra and Fitzgerald, together in one show, backed by the dynamic drive of the Count Basie Orchestra, is a musical experience that comes along once in a lifetime. The comedy digression will be provided by Pat Henry, almost a laugh-staple at Frank Sinatra engagements.

There will be one show at 10:30 p.m. on Thursday, Friday, Sunday and Tuesday, and two shows at 8 p.m. and midnight on Saturday and Wednesday. There will be no performance on Monday.
