The community mourns the loss of Sherlock Feldman, well known in the gaming industry for the past twenty or more years. Sherlock's last association was with the Dunes Hotel. He has an honorary life member of the Al Malaikah Temple, peace officers Shrine Club. Ralph Pearl, who was sensational on that coast-to-coast TV show the other ayem, tells us that the one and only Henny Youngman has a new book out titled, "Henny Youngman's Bar Bets, Bar Jokes, Bar Tricks," published by Citadel Press. If Henny doesn't send us a copy we'll stop laughing at the joke that has us rolling since 1948: "My son is 12 years old. He'll be twelve, if I let him."

The Brass Quintet will perform in the third free concert of the Young Audiences Concert Series sponsored by the Clark County Library District Sunday, June 16 at 2:00 p.m. at the Downtown Library located at 400 East Mesquite Avenue, directly behind City Hall.

Veteran Las Vegas gaming figure Rod Morris has been appointed casino manager of the Union Plaza Hotel.

An amendment approved by the Senate allowing Americans to purchase and own gold is "long overdue and a welcome relief," said Sen. Howard Cannon.

Mrs. Roberta "Bobbie" Watson (daughter of Mike and Sally Gordon, she was the first B'nai Brith President, and without her, there would not be a chapter today in Las Vegas; Sally not only gave of her time, but money, the phone calls back and forth to Los Angeles was really something) has joined the public relations department of the Sheraton Hawaii. Bobbie attended school in Las Vegas and was the advertising director for the Ilika Hotel until she became director of public relations and field advisor to the Girl Scout council of the Pacific. She was born in Las Vegas and received her degree from the University of Southern California. Another native Las Vegasan who made good.

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

Camp Shalom and Kinder Kamp begin this Monday morning in the Center building.

Ira Spector and "Nehama" Resnick, Camp directors, have announced that both Kinder Kamp and Camp Shalom are still taking camper applications. All those attending camp this year should look forward to plenty of swimming, hiking, and camping, and plenty of other things. Articles like egg cartons, old magazines, etc., are still needed for the arts and crafts program at camp. If you have any of these articles please bring them to the Center office.

Both camps counselors and junior counselors went through a rigid five days in training service course this past week to prepare them for this year's sessions

The handball courts will not be affected, but if you plan to play handball or raquetball, please be sure to make reservations either by phone or in person.
