

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- "We have come home," Valery and Galine Panov exclaimed as they arrived at Ben Gurion Airport from Vienna. "This is our home."

BRUSSELS (WNS) -- Jean Gol, who as a deputy from Liege was the only Jew in the Belgian Parliament for the past two years, has become the only Jew named to the new Belgian Cabinet.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The Israeli Government which gave an elaborate welcome for President Nixon, also expected a long-term U.S. military aid agreement to be signed by him while in Jerusalem.

LUSANNE (WNS) -- Israel's disengagement agreements with Syria and Egypt were welcomed in a resolution adopted by the governing council of the World Jewish Congress.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Jewish groups have been urging the Syrian government to hold an open trial for two Jews being charged with the murder of four Jewish women in Damascus. The Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations has urged Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger to intercede in the closed trial.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The Jewish Agency is short some 10,000 housing units for immigrants already in Israel, according to Leon Dulzin, acting Chairman of the Jewish Agency Executive. "We have the money but we don't have the facilities," Dulzin said.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- There is some belief among Labor Party members that the National Religious Party will join Premier Yitzhak Rabin's government on the basis of a mutually acceptable compromise on the Who is a Jew issue.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Israel has disengaged itself from war and can now pursue "the constructive projects of peace," former Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan told some 750 Jewish leaders attending an Israel Bond dinner here in his honor.
