

ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

DICK MCINNES

Well, IFA (International Famous Agency) did it again. They made hundreds of people happy after the Emmy Show and that's a feat in itself. They threw their annual "Dessert" (fantastic strawberry cake) party at Chasen's following the Emmy dinner and such a group that showed up! BRENDA VACCARO (who sat on the floor and rapped, that's how informal it was) with MICHAEL DOUGLAS, ZINA BETHUNE, JEAN NIDITCH, VALERIE HARPER AND DICK SCHAAL, ALAN CARR, MAUREEN STAPLETON (who was seemingly terrified when a Hollywood newsman pushed her into a corner and started to interview her), LOIS NETTLETON WITH PAT MC CORMICH, ANDY WILLIAMS AND CLAUDINE LONGET (just what is their marital status?), LILY TOMLIN and a host of others. JOHNNY CARSON AND ED MAC MAHON held court in the restaurant til the wee hours without even making an appearance. By the way, I hope you did notice that this year the Oscar show came out the winner over the Emmys and the Tonys. The Emmys were too damn confusing and the Tonys were a mess. Oldtimer Oscar was lucky to have KATHERINE HEPBURN, ELIZABETH TAYLOR AND SUSAN HAYWARD and those three ladies can brighten any dismal awards ceremonies.

June is busting out all over with really good movies and isn't that good news! First, I must tell you about "The Parrallax View" from Paramount starring WARREN BEATTY.

It is without a doubt, the most terrifying movie ever made and it out Hitchcock's Hitchcock in the suspense department. Add to that the fact that most of us happen to believe that the movie is possibly true and you have one helluva flick. I won't go into the plot, suffice to say that it deals with assassination. The acting is superb. Beatty could not be better and the supporting cast, PAULA PRENTISS, HUME CRONYN, WILLIAM DANIELS, WALTER MCGINN AND KENNETH MARS are among the best actors in films and they prove it. The film is R-rated but frankly I think everyone should be able to see it. Don't you miss it!

I also think everyone should see "That's Entertainment" but for different reasons. What can anyone say about a movie that features the best of the MGM grand musicals? The stars, the titles of the movies themselves are enough review. ALLYSON, ASTAIRE, CARON, CHARISSE, CHEVALIER, CRAWFORD, CROSBY, DE HAVEN, DURANTE, DURBIN, GABLE (in a delightful song and dance routine from "Idiot's Delight"), GARDNER, GARLAND, GRAYSON, HARLOW, HORNE, KEEL, KELLY LANZA, MILLER, O'BRIEN, O'CONNOR, POWELL (JANE AND ELEANOR), REYNOLDS, ROGERS, ROONEY, SINATRA, SKELTON, STEWART (yep, that's Jimmy) TAYLOR (she also sang once), TOM & JERRY, TURNER, VERA-ELLEN, ETHEL WATERS & ESTHER WILLIAMS (her sequence is so far out) and my friends, that's just a few of them. Titles like "Singing in the Rain," "An American in Paris," "Gigi," "Meet Me in St. Louis," "The Wizard of Oz," "The Great Caruso," "The Pirate," "Bandwagon," "Showboat," "The Great Ziegfeld," "Royal Wedding," "Ziegfeld Girl" and going all the way back to "Broadway Melody of 1929." It even has the very first version of the great song, "Singing in the Rain" sung by Cliff "Ukelele Ike" Edwards. I think the ad line says it all..... "That's Entertainment" boy, do we need it now.

Put some entertainment in your life, we all need it.
