

NOT SURE SOVIETS WILL LET 45,000 JEWS OUT
 WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Published reports that the Soviet Union was ready to guarantee an annual emigration of 45,000 Jews could not be confirmed at either the White House, State Department or the Senate.

The reports said that Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger had discussed the alleged Soviet offer with Sens. Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.), Abraham Ribicoff, (D.Conn.) and Jacob K. Javits (R.N.Y.).

Meanwhile Jerry Goodman, executive director of the National Conference on Soviet Jewry, and Malcolm Hoenlein, the executive director of the Greater New York Conference on Soviet Jewry, in a joint statement said the Soviets are "playing a cynical numbers game with human lives" and the offer shows that "countless Jews are eager to leave the USSR." The statement said that "in principle, we are strongly opposed to negotiations based on numbers rather than on human rights. Our goal is total and free emigration."

Jewish activists in the Soviet Union have said the quota promise to Kissinger would not solve the problem since it would be filled by Jews from the Baltic states, Georgia and Moldavia who presently receive visas while Jews in Moscow and Leningrad will still not get them.

Meanwhile reports from the Soviet Union say that nearly 100 Jewish activists throughout the USSR have been arrested in preparation for President Nixon's visit to Moscow.

STOP THE GREAT ESCAPE!

Your money may be going through the roof!

Without good insulation, your ceiling in summer becomes a radiant panel that bakes everything inside. In winter, it is a virtual sieve through which heat pours out. You're losing money every day your air conditioning or heating equipment is working.

But, there's one sure way to block the great escape and keep your money from sneaking out the door, flying out the window or going through the roof:

Insulate thoroughly

That means insulation in the ceiling, the walls, and perhaps under the floors. You should have insulated doors and windows, and weather stripping, too.

Keep this in mind: insulation is the only property improvement you can make which will conserve energy, make everyone more comfortable, increase property value, need no maintenance and pay for itself in a very few years through savings in air conditioning and heating costs.

Get the entire story from your insulation or building contractor.

Stop the great escape!
