Don't forget the re-run of Sisterhood's "Corner Cabaret" an original musical by Toby Artman, tomorrow, Saturday, June 29, in the Temple Social Hall. Donation is one dollar.

Did you see the ad we are running on an Israel Commemorative Wall Plaque? Did you notice that by pulling a knob you get a full 18 note Music Works of Hatikvah, right in your own living room?

An amendment to provide future cost-of-living adjustments in retirement income tax credits for elderly Americans is co-sponsored by Sen. Howard Cannon.

Sen. Howard Cannon co-sponsored legislation creating a Harry S. Truman Scholarship Foundation and Fund to help youngsters prepare for a career in government.

Congressman David Towell has announced that the Consumer Product Safety Commission is inviting the public to participate in the development of safety standards for thousands of consumer products.

A bill that would provide operating funds for museums throughout Nevada is co-sponsored in the Senate by Sen. Howard Cannon.

It was nice of Phil Krauss of Hollywood Mailbag in Ambridge, Pa., to be so concerned about our boss's foot accident. Phil is uncle of Dr. Joel Davidson at Sunrise Hospital.

Another note to get better from Henry Youngman on the most outlandish stationery -- olive green with black lettering and a crown of jokes in, get this, gold. Henry will be seen on several WABC-TV Wide World of Entertainment shows and is talking to Sahara and MGM Grand for appearances in Vegas. Can't mention Youngman without repeating one of his jokes: Doctor gave a man six months to live. He couldn't pay his bill. So the doctor gave him another six months.

Sam Boyd, president of the Union Plaza Hotel Casino since its 1971 opening, resigned, and Frank E. Scott, chairman of the board, assumed a dual role as chairman of the board and president.

Establishment of a Prosecution Training Coordinator post within the Nevada District Attorney's Association was announced by Roy Woofert, Clark County District Attorney and President of the State's District Attorney group, and J. David Bourland has been named for the post.
