Cecil "Cee" Davidson, well known Las Vegas musician and former orchestra director passed away after a short illness. Cee was conductor of the Sahara Hotel Orchestra for six years, went to the Dunes and then to the Thunderbird Hotel. He is survived by his wife, Harriet, a son, Robert, and a daughter, Diane Schwartz, and two grandchildren. Internment took place in the Palm Memorial Park. Pallbearers were: Dr. Maurice Perlman, Morry King, Lou Kellman, Sammy Shackman and George Riff.

Good luck to the new officers of Hadassah: Ruth Fishman, President, Vice Presidents: Emma Weidenfeld, Helen Snure, Irma Rubin, Lucille Wolfshon, Lillian Eisner, Pauline Stein, Jeanne Schnitzer, Elaine Schiffman, Renee Schreiber and Claire Dase (Could you think of any committee that she isn't on?) Look for Claire to run for some public office.

Stella Haligiannis, formerly from Puerto Rico, but a citizen of the U.S. for a number of years has taken over the El Morocco Beauty Salon. Stella is interested in meeting as many locals as she can. The El Morocco Beauty Shop too has a most unusual boutique. The operators are excellent, willing to please, what with the hot sun, swimming in chlorinated pools, are all detrimental to the condition of one's hair. Be kind to your hair and see that your beautician uses lots of conditioners. The El Morocco beauticians are experts in this. They are open Sundays too. There is no waiting.

Get well wishes to Henrietta Mendelsohn, who is in Sunrise Hospital with a bad case of shingles. Her husband, Eddie, will sure miss his Henrietta.

Some out-of-towners do appreciate having a temple to go to. An out-of-town friend of mine visited our temple for a service and was greeted so warmly by our own Etta Harmell that he send a donation to the temple, mentioning Etta's name in his letter. I knew of this as he wrote and told me so, so this is not hearsay.

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

Our Women's Belly Dancing program instructed by Marliza Pons is now holding classes at 5636 W. Charleston. The class will return to the Center when the day camp program ends. All those interested are urged to call 870-5508 for the summer program.

The summer basketball league will begin in the next couple of weeks. A majority of the games will be played at the Center gym. If you are interested in playing, call John Farrell at the Center during the day. Various age groups will be participating in the league.

This fall the Center will begin another first. This will be a girl's basketball team. A girls basketball clinic was held recently as a primer for the upcoming team. The clinic was supervised by Linda
