

Only in Vegas

By

In these days when everyone is beefing about something or other, it's refreshing to hear a patient rave about the attention received at a hospital. When the patient turns out to be a registered nurse who has been in service in London, England; Toronto, Canada; U.C.L.A. Medical Center and Sunrise Hospital in Las Vegas, she must know of what she speaks. Pat Ginn's wife, Candy, the registered nurse, is recuperating from surgery at Scripps Memorial Hospital, La Holla, California. Sandy reports that the thoroughness and understanding of her internist Dr. Solon Palmer, Jr., and her surgeon Dr. Donley McReynolds, who took nothing for granted, even gave up their lunch hours for twice-a-day check-ups, was equaled by the immediate response of every whim of the patients, portrayed by the excellent staff of nurses. Candy says the big difference is that everyone at Scripps, from the top medical brain to the cleaning woman, is concerned.

Danny Raskin's "Best of Everything" column in the Detroit Jewish News leads off with some wonderful bits about a wonderful man, Sid Hudson, one of our favorites in Las Vegas. Here's what Danny says:

SID HUDSON, "Mr. Las Vegas," was in Detroit recently to visit his former home town . . . and is on the road to recovery after a long illness . . . He spent two months in Los Angeles' Midway Hospital . . . and almost broke into tears on returning to Las Vegas . . . The odds were against Sid . . . but the Hilton Hotels' top brass in Vegas, Henry Lewin, Johnny Oakes, Jimmy Newman and Danny Wolford, had enough confidence that he'd make it back . . . While many folks were lighting candles for him to get well, the Hilton guys took all odds that he would . . . So much in fact, that the suite Sid had been living in for 20 years at the Flamingo Hilton was transformed into a veritable little palace . . . new carpeting, new TV, new drapes, etc. . . with no expense spared . . . Sid (Hodash) Hudson left Detroit in 1942, went to Las Vegas and is owner of Hudson Cleaners out there . . . He maintains a home in Beverly Hills, California . . . but has been living at the Flamingo since it opened 29 years ago.

'Easy Street' with Charlie Chaplin will air Friday, July 19 at 7:30 P.M. on Channel 10.

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

Center Director John Farrell has announced that the Center is planning to sponsor a Grammer softball tournament. John plans to invite the top men's softball teams in the city church league to the tournament, including our own team coached by Dave Millman. A barbecue and a pool party would follow the tournament for all the players.

The Center's single club holds its meetings every Wednesday night which is followed by a volleyball game in the Center gym.

The Center's summer basketball league, the only summer league in Las Vegas, is beginning league play. Our Center's facilities for the summer league are adequate this summer with the arrival of a professional scoreboard and clock, qualified referees, and knowledgeable coaching staff. John Farrell expects the summer league to be a great success this year with a lot of tough competition for our own Center teams.

The first week of second session of Camp Shalom and Kinder Kamp ended today. Ira Spector, Camp Director, is very pleased with how the Camp is moving along this summer.

The handball and raquetball courts are open to Center members during day camp. The rest of the Center facilities will open at 3:30 p.m. when camp is dismissed.

JEWISH SINGLES LIVE DANCE SAT

The Beth Shalom Jewish Singles are having a dance with "live" music. A well known combo from Vegas . . . "music to dance by," will be the headline attraction. It will be held this Saturday, July 20, at 8 p. m., preceded by a no-host cocktails. Dancing will be in the Social Hall of Temple Beth Shalom at 1600 E. Oakey.

All Single adults are invited no matter what religion and we would also encourage tourists visiting Las Vegas to join us . . . just be single.

For further information call Joe Behar at 642-0388 or the Beth Shalom office.

Alternate Municipal Judge Jerry Kaufman, seeking a district judgeship, will get little more than morale support from his adorable wife, Elaine, who was just elected president of our Sisterhood, a job that calls for plenty of time and effort. But don't sell Jerry short. He's got the energy, caliber and know-how of a pulmotor.
