JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

Our adult city league men's softball has won the Las Vegas zone championship. The Center team had to survive two days of playing in hot and humid weather plagued by thunder showers. Hitting power for the new city champs was supplied by Rod Poteete, Gene Hamilton, and Bob Love. On the defensive end, pitcher John Farrell threw two shut-outs. In the church softball league, the two Center teams are also leading their respective divisions. Outstanding players from the Center in that league include Bob Schiffman, Ira Spector, Gary Schnitzer, and Dave Millman. On Sunday mornings the Center sponsors a social league with teams from the Temple Men's Club, the Center, and B'nai B'rith A.Z.A. competing. In the recent elementary school-junior high age softball tournament, the J.C.C. team edged out Trinity Lutheran by a score of 1-0 to win that division title. A barbecue and swim party followed that tournament. The Center's summer basketball leagues will hold its tournament on August 10th through August 13th. There will be a senior high and a junior high division in the tournament. The all-stars will then travel to Phoenix, Arizona to participate in the Senior Olympics Basketball Competition.

The Las Vegas recreation Department is looking for instructors for the following classes: Yoga, Oil Painting, Drawing, Cake Decorating, Knitting, and Crocheting. These classes will be held weekday evenings. Interested persons are requested to call Priscilla Connelly, 386-6307.
