A Great Woman

By Rabbi Samuel Silver

So the Episcopalians have ordained 11 women! That daring deed may result in the excommunication of those who did it, even though they are bishops.

And we already have a female rabbi, and some other girls are on their way to ordination! These facts remind me that there are at least three women who could step into a pulpit at any moment and do as well in the rabbinate as any ordained male.

These women are rabbinical widows: Mrs. Goldie Adler, whose husband was the great Dr. Morris Adler, of Detroit; Mrs. Avis Shulman, of Riverdale, N. Y.; and Mrs. Rebecca Brickner, whose partner was Cleveland's Dr. Barnett Brickner.

This year Mrs. Brickner was singularly honored at Cleveland's Fairmount Temple with a citation presented by the head of the Reform Jewish seminary, Dr. Alfred Gottschalk.

On the occasion of Mrs. Brickner's birthday, Dr. Gottschalk compared Mrs. Brickner to the legendary Berurja, of the Talmudical age, whose wisdom glittered. He reminded a huge congregation that Mrs. Brickner was a landsfrau and friend of the late Henrietta Szold (of Baltimore.) He praised this eloquent, learned and gracious woman for the partnership she gave her late husband and the leadership she displayed in many efforts, especially those in the realm of education.

In her response, Mrs. Brickner asserted that she has never lost the love of learning and that she still regards herself as a student of Yiddishkeit.

She handled herself comfortably on that pulpit, and was as eloquent as Rabbi Arthur Lelyveld, the rabbi of that temple, and her son, Rabbi Balfour Brickner, who got reverse nachas from the new honors bestowed upon his sagacious mother.

Yes, American Jewry is blessed in many ways. Not the least of our ornaments are such gifted women as Mrs. Rebecca Brickner. I speak on behalf of myriads of admirers in adding my own salute!

NEW YORK -- Fourteen 13-year-old deaf students, seven boys and seven girls, were recently honored at the sixth annual Bar Mitzvah celebration of the NIV School for the Deaf in Tel Aviv.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Israel and the other five original participants will have the right to veto the admission of any new participants to the Middle East peace conference at Geneva, according to high State Department sources.

YOU HAVE ONLY 3 CHOICES

A good mechanic
 A bad mechanic
 Or no mechanic at all

And with watches, it's no different than with cars.

Our WYLER watches come from Switzerland where they believe in built-in quality. Not flash, not gimmicks. Just constant quality performance.

But if your WYLER ever needs servicing, you've got the best mechanic in town. We are recognized watch professionals—and all the genuine WYLER parts are right here.

So don't get taken. Like a fine car, a fine watch must come from a reliable dealer, who will give you honest value. Like cars, WYLERs come in a choice of models starting at only 39.95. All with written guarantees—the factory's and our own. As a matter of fact, we wear WYLER watches ourselves.
