New York. . . . The ANDREWS SISTERS in "Over Here" is the most fun that I've had in New York for ages. PATTY & MAXENE are in great shape and singing as well as ever, if not better. Making every single line count, the dynamic duo show a comedic talent not seen in the old flicks. They are terrific together and really shine in their solo spots, Maxene in "Charlie's Place" and Patty in the haunting "Where Did the Good Times Go" (a real goose-bumper). JANIE SELLS, last year's Tony winner for this role proves why she won it. She out-Marlene's Dietrich in the German spy role and darn near steals the show which is no easy feat with those Andrews ladies around. "Over Here" has some of the most exciting dances ever seen on Broadway thanks to PATRICIA BIRCH, the choreographer. ANN REINKING & JOHN MINEO, two show-stopping dancers raised the roof in "Charlie's Place" with their out-of-sight jitterbugging. The young lovers (should they or shouldn't they until they wed???) APRIL SHAWHAN & JOHN DRIVER: the gum-chewing waitress and the farmboy, MARILU HENNER & TREAT WILLIAMS; the misfit G.I. and the Agnes Gooch-type chick, JOHN TRAVOLTA & PHYLLIS SOMERVILLE are all familiar 40's characters, played by talented and energetic performers. The on-stage musicians really bring back the big band sound and it looks like director TOM MOORE adds another whopping hit to his list of laurels. And as if the show weren't enough, at the curtain calls, Patty stepped forward and asked, "Would you like to hear some of the old songs?" The audience went wild as the girls did about 20 of their numbers. What an

JACKSON FIVE RETURN TO MGM GRAND CELEBRITY ROOM

The Jackson Five, who made a smashing successful Las Vegas debut at the MGM Grand Hotel this spring, returned to the scene of their triumph. The sensational teenaged supergroup opened a two-week stand in the posh MGM Celebrity Room. Joining the super-group in the Celebrity Room spotlight for the fortnight are television comedy stars Burns and Schreiber.

The Jackson Five, with special guest stars Burns and Schreiber, follow headliners Helen Reddy and Gabriel Kaplan into the Celebrity Room.

The Jackson Five is proven solid-gold-success. One of the most youthful and successful groups ever to materialize on the U.S. music scene, the Motown recording stars have already sold over 25 million records. The youngsters' instant success was so spectacular that in an incredibly short time they became the fastest selling recording group in Motown history, out-selling such giants as The Temptations, The Supremes and Stevie Wonder.

Together, Jack Burns and Avery Schreiber form one of the most distinctive comedy teams to come along in years. Burns is the thin one. Schreiber is the rotund one with the woolly thatch and big mustache. Burns is the quiet one; Schreiber is the outgoing one. Burns has the rapier, whiplash-fast wit; Schreiber's comedy is more physical, not in a baggy-pants, pie-in-the-face sense, but in the use of his body, his singularly expressive, mobile face and inspired comedic mind.

The Burns and Schreiber chemistry has worked very well, producing a string of television and recording successes.

evening! New York isn't quite the fun city it used to be but Patty and Maxene and "Over Here" sure make it seem like it is.

Hollywood. . . . Universal's LEW WASSERMAN & SID SHEINBERG threw a "Sneak Preview" of ALFRED HITCHCOCK's 75th birthday. That is, they held it the day before his birthday because he was busy on his birthday working on the script of his 53rd motion picture, "The Rainbow Pattern." Chasen's was filled with stars of his films, industry executives, close friends and fellow workers to sing "Happy Birthday" to Hitch. He was delightful as he answered the questions fired at him by the press including an impromptu interview by GEORGE PEPPARD who really celebrated. Among the Hitchcock Stars were JANET LEIGH (Psycho), CARY GRANT (North by Northwest), JOHN FORSYTHE (The Trouble with Harry), LARAINÉ DAY (Foreign Correspondent), ROD TAYLOR (The Birds), SIMON OAKLAND (Psycho) and friends, ROSALIND RUSSELL, EDITH HEAD, KATHARINE CRAWFORD, JANE WYMAN, CHARLTON HESTON, MIKE FRANKO-

VICH & BINNIE BARNES, JACKIE COOPER, HENRY JONES & MURRAY MATHESON. The cake was gigantic featuring 75 squares with the Hitchcock caricature on each one and one extra in the middle to "grow on." Another cake was brought out for his bride of 48 years who was celebrating her birthday in a few days. It was a lovely party for two lovely people. Have a good week and if you start to feel a little tired, just remember Alfred Hitchcock at 75 starting is 53rd movie. That'll rejuvenate you.
