LAS VEGAS NIGHTS STOPPED IN B'KLYN.

NEW YORK (WNS)-- The Jewish Community Council and the Board of Rabbis in Brooklyn have issued a joint statement warning Jewish religious and lay organizations to eliminate Las Vegas Nite fund-raising operations which the statement said violated both state law and Jewish ethical traditions.

The warning came after two recent incidents involving such fund-raising activities at two Brooklyn synagogues.

First a reputed Mafia figure, Steven Cirillo, 31, was shot to death during a Las Vegas Nite event at Congregation B'nai Israel of Sheepshead Bay. A week later police raided a similar event at the Hebrew Alliance Synagogue of Coney Island arresting 10 persons. Police sources said that it appeared that such gambling games were conducted occasionally at churches and synagogues by organized crime elements, but there was no connection between Jewish sponsors of the game nights and crime figures.

Absentee Balloting in the Clark County Election Department will run through August 27th. Any Clark County resident who will be out-of-town on Election Day may come into the Clark County Election Department located at 400 Las Vegas Boulevard South from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. and cast an Absentee Ballot.
