DECORATING with a new flair comes to Las Vegas - "Contemporary Reflections," 3433 Industrial Road (off Spring Mountain Road.) John Hancock (owner) formerly of New Orleans and a permanent resident of Las Vegas for the past 10 years brings a new technique to our town. What started out as a hobby experimenting with various methods including acid, beeswax, sandblasting, silk screening, etc., John had developed his own unique process, creating the most unusual etchings (personalized, commercial or otherwise) on mirrors, glass, plexiglass and lucite. His artistic flair is perfected in arrangements that lend themselves to hotel decor, business themes and to personalized home decorating.
