"Folies" Tradition Passes

Gus Augspurg, who died August 14 at Sunrise Hospital in Las Vegas, was the longest running featured act in the fourteen year history of the Tropicana Hotel's "Folies Bergere". Popular Augspurg and his Girl Friends, guinea baboon Mary Jane and rhesus monkey Judy, continued in the revue until one week before the 1974 edition closed Aug. 10. With the exception of a year's engagement in Paris, the act had been in all editions of the "Folies" since 1965.

CHERRY WAINER ON HAMMOND ORGAN AND VOCALS WHO APPEARS WITH DON STORER ON DRUMS AND VOCALS IN THE NEW NIFTY NOOK LOUNGE OF THE LANDMARK HOTEL. BILLED AS CHERRY & DON, THEY ARE KNOWN AS THE BIGGEST LITTLE BAND IN THE WORLD HAVING PLAYED ON SEVERAL CONTINENTS AND A COMMAND PERFORMANCE FOR THE QUEEN OF ENGLAND.

Although Gus Augspurg and his simians were a favorite national nightery act and guested on most major TV variety shows many times, he and his wife Casey, who always assisted him behind the scenes, began their joint career presenting visual education programs involving wild animal training at the University of Wisconsin and the University of Minnesota. Since acquiring rhesus Judy nearly thirty one years ago, the Augspurgs never have had a vacation. The monkeys went wherever the Augspurgs did.

TOM JONES BACK AT CAESARS PALACE UNTIL SEPT. 11

"Good evening, ladies! . . . and gentlemen."

Yes, ladies (and gentlemen), the above familiar greeting is that of Tom Jones as he begins each of his electrifying nightclub performances. Both will be seen and heard at Caesars Palace August 29-September 11 when the fantastic supersinger headlines his seventh engagement in the resort hotel's Circus Maximus theatre-restaurant.

"There's nothing like it," Tom says of his in-person appearances. "I could give up recording and television if I had to, but I'll stay on stage until I'm 97 if I'm still around and people still want to see me."

For Tom, undisputedly the best known singer Britain has ever produced, the show is a mutual thing -- the more the audience enjoys it, the more he does too.

TOM

And enjoy it they do. Sharing the stage with Tom this time will be comedian David Brenner, whose rich sense of humor is off-beat but so unique in its hilarity that it appeals to people of all ages and types, plus The Blossoms, a talented new sound musical group, and the exciting Caesars Palace Dancers, Johnnie Spence, Tom's musical director and conductor, will baton the award-winning Nat Brandwynne orchestra.

Frank Sinatra returns September 12-18.
