JEWISH LEADERS HAIL ROCKY'S NOMINATION

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Former New York Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller's nomination by President Ford to be Vice President has been hailed by American Jewish leaders.

The 66-year-old Rockefeller is considered a friend of the Jewish people and has long been firmly committed to the security and survival of Israel. For the 15 years he was governor of New York prior to his resignation in December 1973, Rockefeller received a great deal of election support from the Jewish community. He was a long time supporter of the United Jewish Appeal campaign in New York and was founder and first chairman of the Non-Sectarian Community Committee for the UJA in 1946-47, serving again as its chairman in 1958.

As governor, he traditionally participated in UJA campaign-inaugural dinners. At the end of World War II, Rockefeller was active in helping to relocate people in DP camps in Europe and in supporting the establishment of the State of Israel, which he later visited several times. He has frequently praised Israel and urged U.S. support for the Jewish state as well as having called for Arab states to recognize Israel as the first step toward peace in the Mideast.
